Varsity Tomorrow

This year's team had a losing season but many bright spots in key positions. The boys played out of position in several games due to injury.

We hope that as a group the boys will continue in the sport throughout their high school years and grow in size and knowledge and turn into a real Senate League contender.

The Diary of Anne Frank

BACKGROUND

Anne Frank's diary was written in 1943 and 1944. Her family and the Van Daan family along with Mr. Dussel shared a "secret annexe" during the war in Amsterdam, Holland. They were all Jewish. For two long years they lived without seeing daylight or talking to anyone other than Mrs. Kraller and Miep who brought supplies.

This play, taken from her diary, is an account of some of the events that took place during those two years.

The Band Does It Again

This year the Northwest High School band was again under the direction of Mr. E. W. Puffenberger with assistant and marching band director, Mr. William Hayward.

Following suit to the past, the band gave three concerts: one at Christmas, one in February, and one in the spring. The band participated in the district and state contests and at state where they received their 33rd consecutive "1" or superior rating. This is an accomplishment unequaled by any other band in the state of Ohio and perhaps the nation.

The band also performed at such other occasions as football games, pep rallies, and senior commencement. This year the group undertook a new endeavor in forming a pep band for basketball games.

At the end of the school year, there was a great difference than in past years. Mr. Puffenberger, who was loved and admired by many, retired. We will all miss him, but wish only the best for him in the future.

The band and other interested individuals contributed the funds so that colored pictures of Mr. Puffenberger could be placed in this annual.

The purpose of Y-Teens is to build a fellowship of women devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians.

This year the club started off by having a social outing at Clay's Park. Community projects included a UNICEF drive at Halloween. Around Valentine's Day they sold hearts for 2¢ a piece. At Thanksgiving and Easter they led the student body in religious services. They were also in charge of the daily morning devotions. To end the year, a banquet in honor of graduating seniors and all the girls' mothers was held.

Ping-pong is still one of the favorite lunch-time sports.

Student Council made many accomplishments during the school year of 1971-72. During the summer they conducted an orientation for the freshmen where they learned who the administration were and were given a tour of the building; December 17 was the date of the annual Christmas party; they sponsored and encouraged N.H.S. students to participate in a Walk-a-Thon and also to donate to the Higgins fund.

In the morning, Student Council was responsible for giving the date, the menu, and reading the pledge to the flag. They also volunteered to clean up the cafeteria after the third lunch period; were responsible for getting a tardy bell in the morning to help prevent students from being late for home room.

Helping the National Honor Society buy pins, and this year they also donated $35 towards the Honors Banquet.

Probably one of the most noticeable accomplishments made by Student Council this year was obtaining the bulletin board in the main hall. It was used by both classes and organizations to let the student know of different happenings.

Twenty-eight students were inducted into the National Honor Society this year.

The welcome and NHS emblem was given by President Debbie Dittmer, pledge by Martin Fye, devotions by Karla Karalic, character by Debbie Roach, scholarship by Alice Wagner, leadership by Suzanne Woodford, and service by Bob Wallace.

Keith Heddles, exchange student at Manchester High from Australia, was the guest speaker. Music was provided by the chorus.

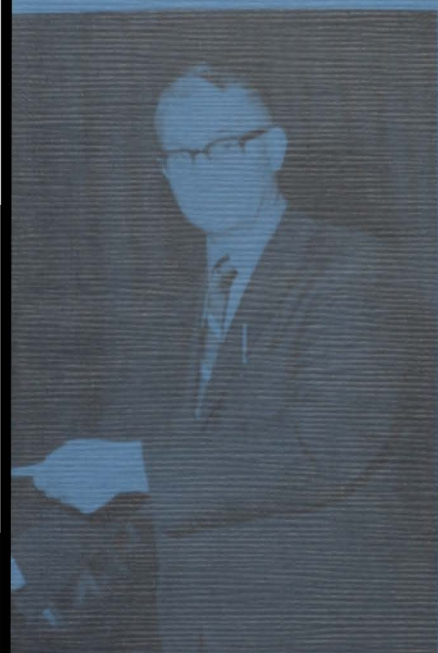

New senior inductees are: Marianne Holzapfel, Marilyn Hill, Linda Beaber, Rosemary Swoape, Anita Swigart, Sherry Kerns, Vicki Tanner, Gail Marich, Pam Jarvis, Heidi Welchlin, Sheryl Nettle, Marilyn Fletcher, Ron Kovein, and Mary Slicker.

Juniors: Sherry Knopf, Kathy Maguire, Glenna Oser, JoLanc Walsh, Cindy Denhartner, Scott Fellmeth, Pat McKenna, Ed Nettle, Gordon Korom, Jim Peterman, Cheryl Maynard, Kathy Suderow, Joe Sabo, and Pam Burwell.

Not only does our Library Club provide the service of assisting in the library itself, but does many wonderful services throughout the year.

The Club purchased a record to begin the record collection, sold paperbacks, and attended the convention at the Kent State branch where they won the poster contest.

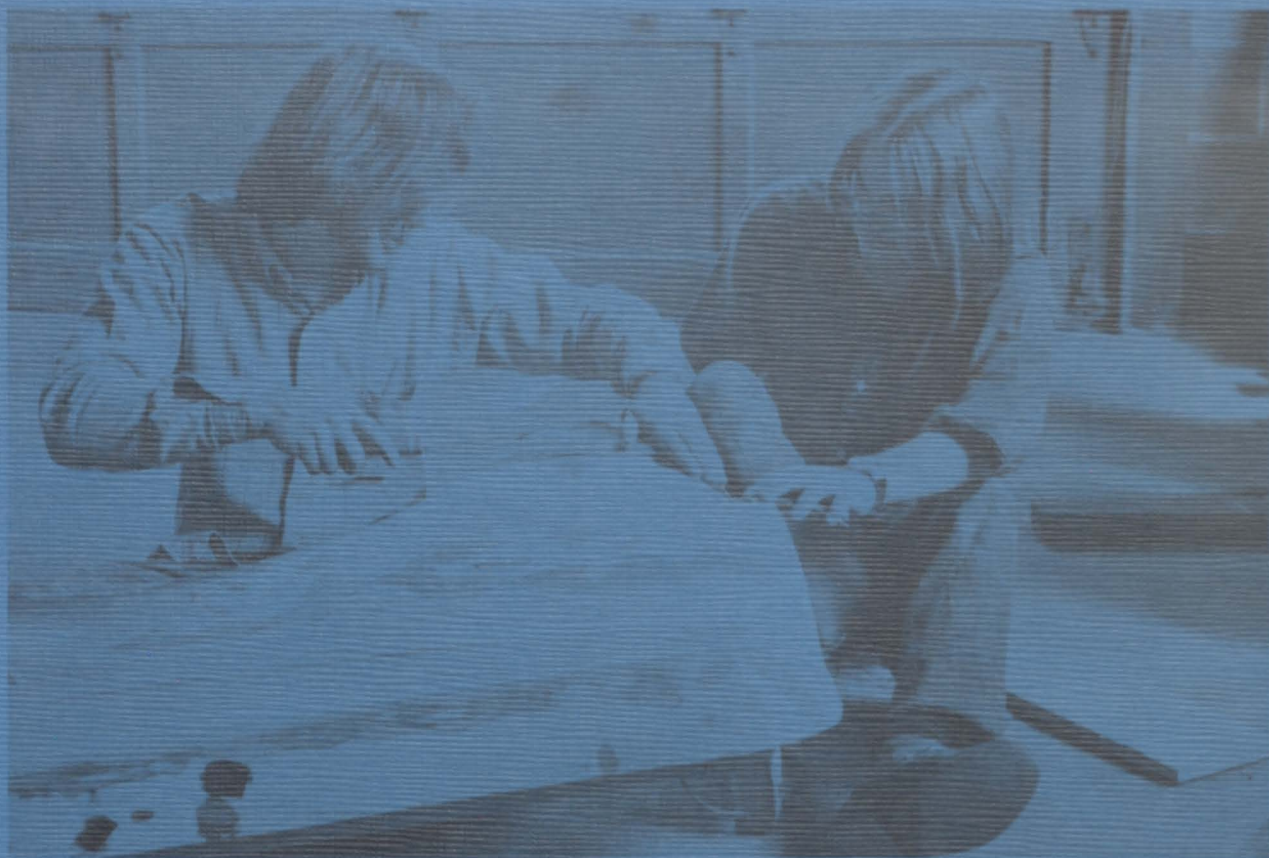

To help others, they donated newspapers to the Boy Scouts and sent Christmas and Valentine boxes to servicemen.

For their own enjoyment, they had a Christmas, Valentine and St. Patrick's Day party, attended the movie Dr. Zhivago, and took a trip to Marietta, Ohio.

The club has 23 members this year.

Chieftain Takes on New Look With 'Seasons' Format

The purpose of an annual staff is to gather material, copy and pictures, throughout the school year to produce a collection of memories. This, in itself, is a tremendous task undertaken by many of the people seen on these two pages.

Our staff has tried to present you with a unique book, CHIEFTAIN, as always, but with a new theme, "Seasons." We hope you enjoy it.

Knowing the challenges of making such a publication possible, we ask for the cooperation of students, faculty, and administration in the making of future yearbooks. Without it, we constantly remain

The Tribe had bright prospects for a successful season with 6 returning lettermen. However, the season was a disappointment as new coach Kent Smith introduced a new system. It took most of the season to learn the system, but the Indians managed 7 wins and a 3rd place finish in the Senate League.

Varsity Cheerleaders Display Enthusiasm

The 1971-72 edition of the cheerleaders did an excellent job of supporting our team. Despite a lack of school spirit, the varsity yellers were behind our team at all times 100%.

The Season by A.W.M.

The Madison Rams confirmed pre-season predictions of being a power as they charged over the Indians 40-22. Due to a sand-lot football injury, Sr. Brad Kurtz was missing from the line-up. Doug Hamilton (155) won on a rare disqualification penalty for six team points.

The Oakwood Raiders were "pinned" three times in the last four weight classes as the fired up Braves, led by Terry Bucher (167), came from a 24-13 deficit to win 34-24.

Brian Ries (98) replaced injured Bud Amodio and scores two victories, but the Indians are so intent to scalp the Massillon Tigers they neglect to notice Akron Garfield. The highlight event was between Ike Nicholson and Larry McClendon, which had the crowd on their feet. Ike gave 18 pounds and was edged 9-8. Final tally found Garfield 60; Northwest 56; Massillon 29.

Manchester Panthers and Jackson Polar Bears got mauled by victory hungry tribe. Ike Nicholson got double pins, Jim Harris (145) scores one pin and one decision, as Indians tally 82 points. Jackson was second with 38 points and Manchester had 33.

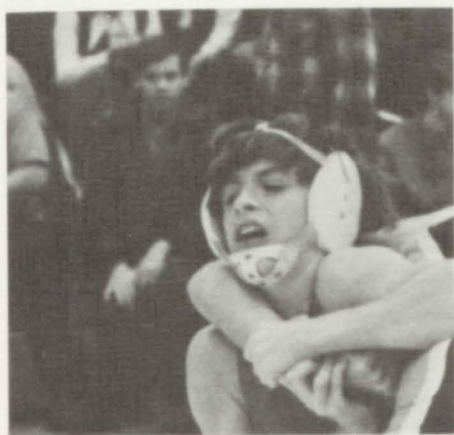

Orrville Red Riders humiliate Tribe with three State Finalists to the tune of 42-11. Reserves get treated to some "home cooking" and make plans for a "scalp party" in 1973.

McKinley Bulldogs should have brought an extra kennel as the scratched and scarred Indians post victory #5 by a score of 34-28.

"AAA" class school Akron Ellet edged out a 37-21 decision on visiting Red Men via some questionable Northern Officiating. The Orange Men swept the final four bouts to rally off 21-16 deficit.

Rittman Indians got caught in Northwest rampage and are stung 56-11. Terry Podnar (105) set the pace as he squeaks his man 26-40. Ed Nettle secures points for his third varsity award, the fourth brother to do so.

Warpath continued to Marietta, as Mickey Podnar upsets Swanton's NW Tourney champ Dennis Staples. Brad Ross (126) set Quick Pin mark of the year in 0:22 seconds. Dale Dodrill scores dual victories but is lost remainder of the year. Howard Fierstos scores 10 team points. The final score was NW 78; Swanton 51; Marietta 45.

Frosh End Season With 7-1 Record

Former Northwest wrestler, Keith Boyd, (Class of '65), coached the Freshman to a 7-1 season. The Lone Loss was to Green and only by five points. Enroute to the impressive record, the "Little Indians" amassed so many points as to seem, an exaggeration. To be noted also is the fact that three Freshmen earned Varsity letters and did not even compete on the Freshman level.

Victories were marked on:

- Malvern

"Raindrops and Rainbows" was the setting for the crowning of Mr. David Rhoades and Miss Barbara Podnar, Friday, March 17.

The theme of the dance added a romantic glow to the procession of those being honored as they each in turn were escorted across the gym's dim-lighted floor.

After the crowning, the entire court danced to "You've Got A Friend," supplied by the 31st Street Exit. The other members of the court were Suzanne Woodford escorted by Greg Holland, Anita Swigart by Troy Bodkins; Ilka Weber by Mark Fowler; and Brenda Fraser by Bob Lance.

The dance was sponsored by the Y-Teens and the FTA.

Latin Club . . . Very Much

The Latin Club is probably the most active group at NHS and this year was no exception. Things started out September 25 when two of ten students - Jeff Weber and Chris Lance - won ribbons for events at Olympic Day held at Brunnerdale Seminary. Carol and Laura Higgins entered the Academic Olympic there on February 26.

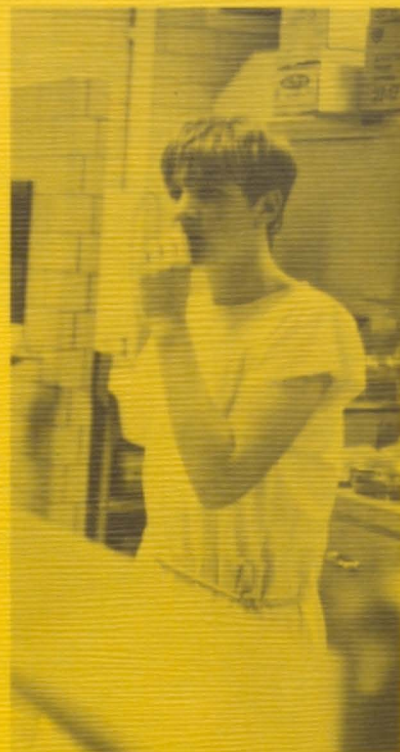

Fifty of the students attended the State Convention. The theme was: "Latin is Alive and Kicking."

The annual slave sale raised $181.50 as Libby Fields turned out to be the most expensive purchase - $17. The purpose of the sale is, of course, to raise money for the banquet. The theme of the event was The Story of Roman History.

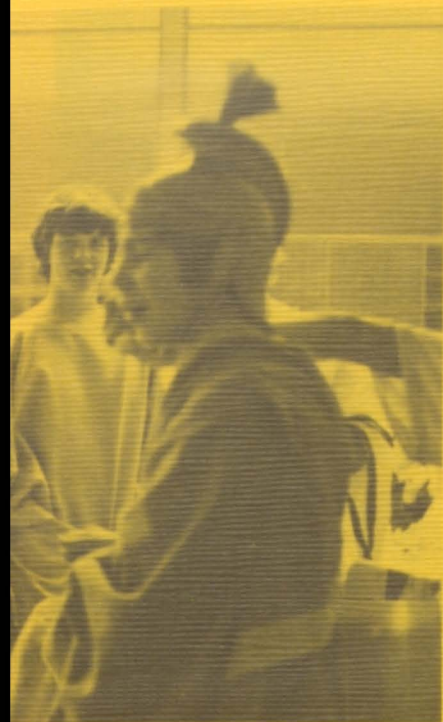

Dr. Ingor Bella was invited to show slides of Greece to the students during the Spring.

Second year students headed by Eric Minks and Jim Ikins showed posters and slides to intermediate students to increase their interest in Latin.

Allen Bradshaw, Jim Ikins, Brand Gesaman, Jeff Weber, Dee Black, Debbie Shields, Cindy Demharter, Eliz Craddock, Karen Cvitkovich, and Miss Fletcher attended the national convention at Blacksburg, Va. August 6-10. Cindy won a ribbon for the long jump and the club was recognized for their scrapbook, posters, and map.

Under the direction of former student, Mrs. Janice Beaber Brightenstein, the 61 girls and 15 boys sang at a Christmas and spring concert, both elementary schools, the Thanksgiving and Easter assemblies, National Honor Society Induction, and graduation.

At the end of the year, the group held a wonderful tea in honor of their director. They presented Mrs. Brightenstein with a beautiful gift and, of course, did some singing.

Every year a new group of students decide to go into a vocational field. Secretarial and Clerical Business and Office Education are two areas available.

As a club, the Jr. Secretarial B.O.E. was very active. A few of the activities include a bath-tub pull to make money for the Pat Freed Fund, bake sales, and a Rabbit Raffle. At the end of the year the girls held a tea for the next year's juniors and their mothers and for the graduating seniors.

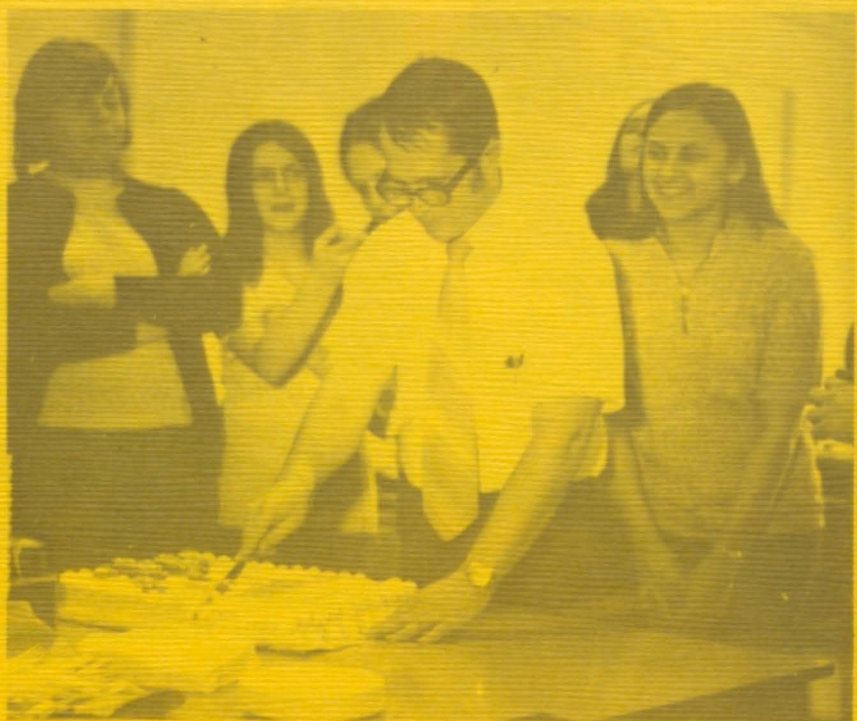

The owner was sad to see him go when given away at the Rabbit Raffle at Easter time.

The Jr. Clerical B.O.E. was inactive, as this was truly the first year they were even considered being a club.

On the right, the picture shows a party, which the class held in honor of Mr. Hexamer who left to go to Clinton Elementary. Mr. Michael Held took his place.

For he's a jolly good fellow ...

Mr. Luther gets in on the action!

The Sr. Clerical B.O.E. was active this year with participation in such activities as selling Tom Watt products, having a Cosmetic party, and visiting Massillon State Hospital at Christmas time.

The Senior Secretarial Business and Office Education Club entertained patients at Massillon State Hospital again this year, had a dinner and Christmas exchange at the Imperial House Restaurant, held a tea for the faculty and went out to lunch during National Secretaries Week, had a baby shower for Mrs. Martin, and went out to dinner, bowling, a movie, and a slumber party at the end of the year.

As ways of making money, the girls held a bake sale, a dance, typed newspaper articles, and operated the paper, pencil, and pen machines.

Surprise, Miss Gantz!!! (The Newspaper Staff)

These hard-workers are unaware that they are being watched.

The experiences of the newspaper staff this year were many and varied, some pleasant and some unpleasant. It was a great experience for those who honestly put forth the effort it takes to have a "decent" paper. Many times this group had its problems, but they were dealt with and the paper, to some, was a success.

Future Doctors and Nurses

The above students interested in a career in the medical field formed the Future Doctors and Nurses of America Club.

A field trip to Massillon City Hospital was taken and summer activities planned.

Adults who helped the students begin the club included: Mrs. Secrest, Mr. Walther, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Bragg, Mrs. Nehrenz, and registered nurses, Mrs. Becker and Mrs. Nelson.

Spanish Can Be Fun

... as portrayed by various views of the Spanish I and II classes. They enjoyed a feast of tacos and tortillas and other spicy, hot Spanish foods.

A Spanish Christmas is a festive time with many days of celebration and a pinata filled with candy and small toys. The Spanish classes made the pinata below and filled it with the like and broke it as in the foreign custom.

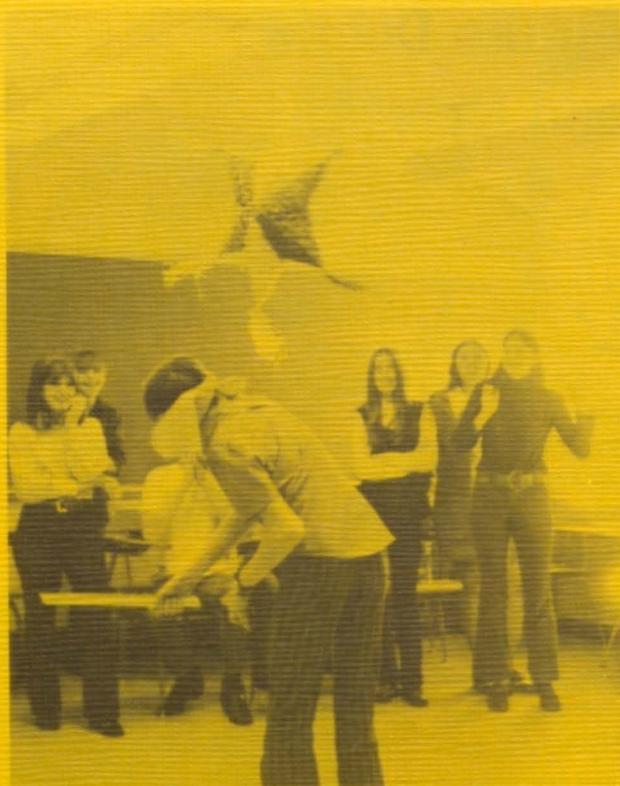

Yes, Spanish can be fun and can, at the same time, be a knowledgeable experience.

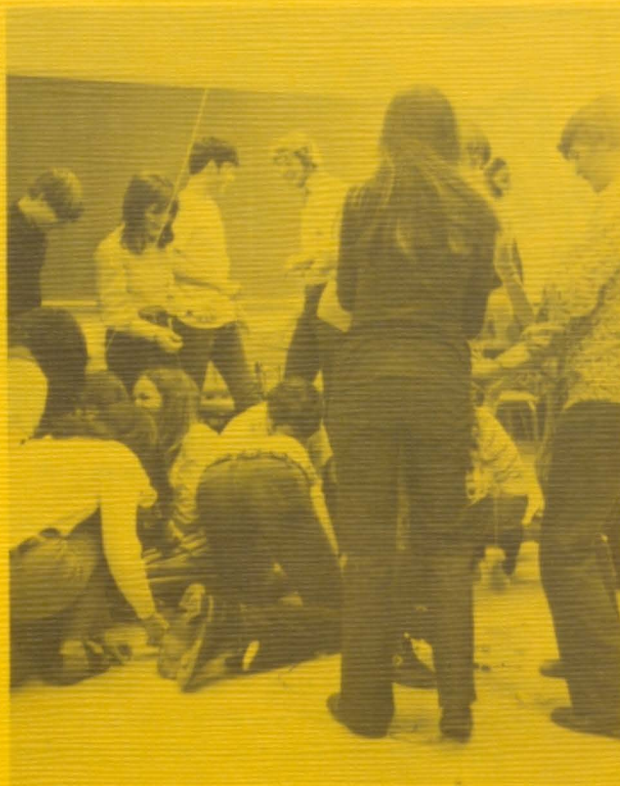

Puzzled? You're not the only one!

The closer they get ...

Will he miss? ...

Look at the children scamper for the toys and candy.

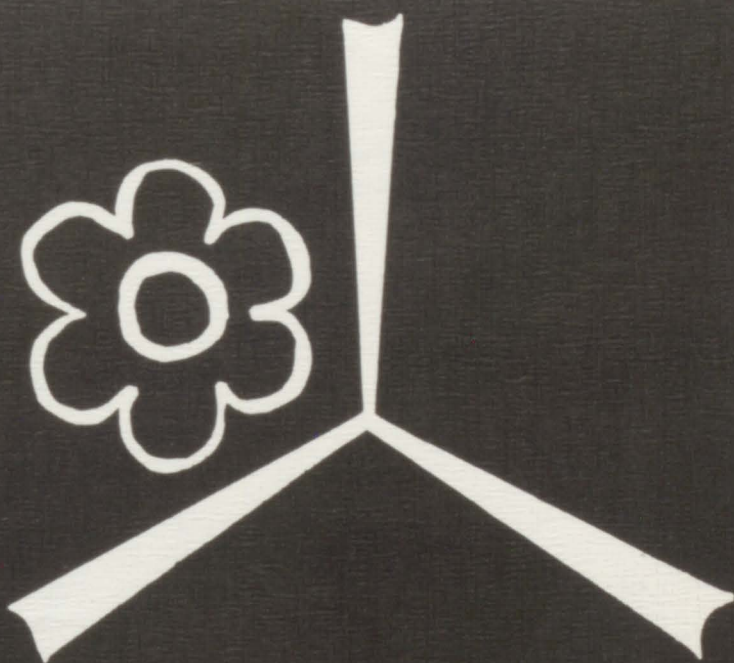

Because I have been the springtime's divine awakening,
I know what hope is . . .

105 Seniors Complete Requirements

Graduation means many different things. Some feel it is the end; some the beginning. Others find it a moment to be happy, proud, frustrated, bored, or indifferent.

The seventeenth graduation at Northwest High School was held outside. Dr. Marion Reubel, professor at Akron University, was the speaker. Dr. Ingor Bella, pastor at the Clinton Lutheran Church, was the Baccalaureate speaker. Valedictorian was Marianne Holzapfel; Salutatorian was Marilyn Hill. Superintendent Bethel presented the class to board president, Stanley Shondel. He presented each graduate with his diploma. The band and chorus furnished the music.

Something Old . . . . . . Something New . . .

... was the scene of our Junior-Senior Prom this year. The prom itself is an annual formal dance, but for the first time in many years it was held outside of the school. Guests dined and danced at the Canton Cultural Center. The music to dance by was presented by "Witch Hazel." There was no after-prom.

Dan Lindsay provided extra entertainment.

A Typical Go-Together Math and Science

A new face at Northwest this year has been that of Elaine Keller. She teaches general math, algebra I, and senior math and serves as an advisor to the sophomore class.

Also joining us was Don Williams, teacher and coach. Mr. Williams instructed general math, geometry, algebra II, and advanced math classes as well as coaching track as the head and assisting in football.

An old pro who was with us still this year was Alden Keister. He instructed classes of chemistry and earth science.

A new young and handsome face (as told by many love-stricken girls) is John Rochus. He teaches physics, biology, general science, as well as advises the new Science Club and assists in coaching football teams at Northwest.

The Languages

Mrs. Clifford (Senora) teaches Spanish I and II classes, world history, sociology, and advises the Spanish Club.

CHRISTINE GANTZ

And Historical Background

Mr. Martin, a very unique person, teaches world history, American government, civics, and geography, while advising the debate team, the projection club, and the voting processes at every mock election, at the high school. Our apologies if we missed anything, Mr. Martin.

Mr. Luther teaches American government and coaches the golf team. He also is the attendance watchdog. Look out if you decide to flick one day!!

Mr. Healey, past basketball coach is still very active as our Athletic director. He teaches American history and he's a great counselor if you need one!

STEVE LUTHER      TOM HEALEY

A Step in the Right Direction

CHRISTINA SECREST

Mrs. Secrest, formerly known as Miss McCoy, although new to us this year, is well-known by students and faculty both. She teaches girls' gym classes and health and advises the cheerleading squads.

Mr. Smith is head football and basketball coach and teaches boys' gym. He also is a new faculty member this year.

And still another addition to the staff of teachers is Mr. Gannon, who teaches the special education class. The students say he is a great entertainer with his guitar.

Culture Begins . . . with the Arts

JANICE BREITENSTINE

RICHARD BRIGGS

Mrs. Breitenstine was a new member of the faculty this year teaching chorus, leading an ensemble, and instructing speech classes. Through her leadership, the chorus enjoyed a first at Northwest - a banquet for the members and their parents. Mr. Briggs is a faithful behind-the-scene figure, always ready to lend a hand with anything concerned with art. He does this along with instruction of art, at the high school and the intermediate.

Mr. Hayward joined us this year to assist Mr. Puffenberger in concert band and to direct marching band.

Mr. Puffenberger, our music department head has been with us for many years directing the concert and marching bands. His influence over the years will certainly not be forgotten even though this year will be his last to teach. We are sorry to see him go, but we will remember him as a person who was genuinely interested in his well-being of his students. We wish you well, Sir.

WILLIAM HAYWARD

EMIL W. PUFFENBERGER

Mrs. Jones teaches Home Ec. II, a continuation of Home Ec. I, and advises the FHA Club. Both she and Mrs. Bragg are called upon many times during the year to assist with Social functions at the school.

High School Is Not All College Prep

Miss Bauman, another new member of the faculty, came to Northwest this year to teach Junior Secretarial Business and Office Education and typing. She and the girls she teaches have had a very active year.

As an experienced businesswoman, Mrs. Beale came to Northwest this year to share her knowledge with the Senior Clerical Business and Office Education class and with the general business classes.

MARTHA JANE BEALE

Mr. Suderow has been the Class of 1972's advisor all four years, which is no easy job. A former student of Northwest, he now teaches Industrial Arts and/or metal shop.

Mr. Ridzon, who is greatly admired by many students (girls mostly), is teaching wood shop and also advises the Freshman class.

A very likable man, Mr. Halpin instructs all classes of mechanical drawing and coaches football. He's been faithful to Northwest for fourteen years.

BIGGEST EATERS: Debbie Dittmer and Mark Fowler

MR. NORTHWEST: MARK FAHRNEY

Mark was chosen Mr. Northwest by his class of 1972, having such outstanding qualities as leadership, personality, and scholarship. His portrayal of these qualities is shown in his participation at Northwest High School as having been vice-president of his class in his Freshman year, as President in his Sophomore, Junior and Senior years, as a member of football, basketball, and baseball teams, and as a member of Latin Club and the Projection Club. He is a member of the Methodist Church and his hobbies and interests include collecting records, playing the guitar, music in general, and playing sports.

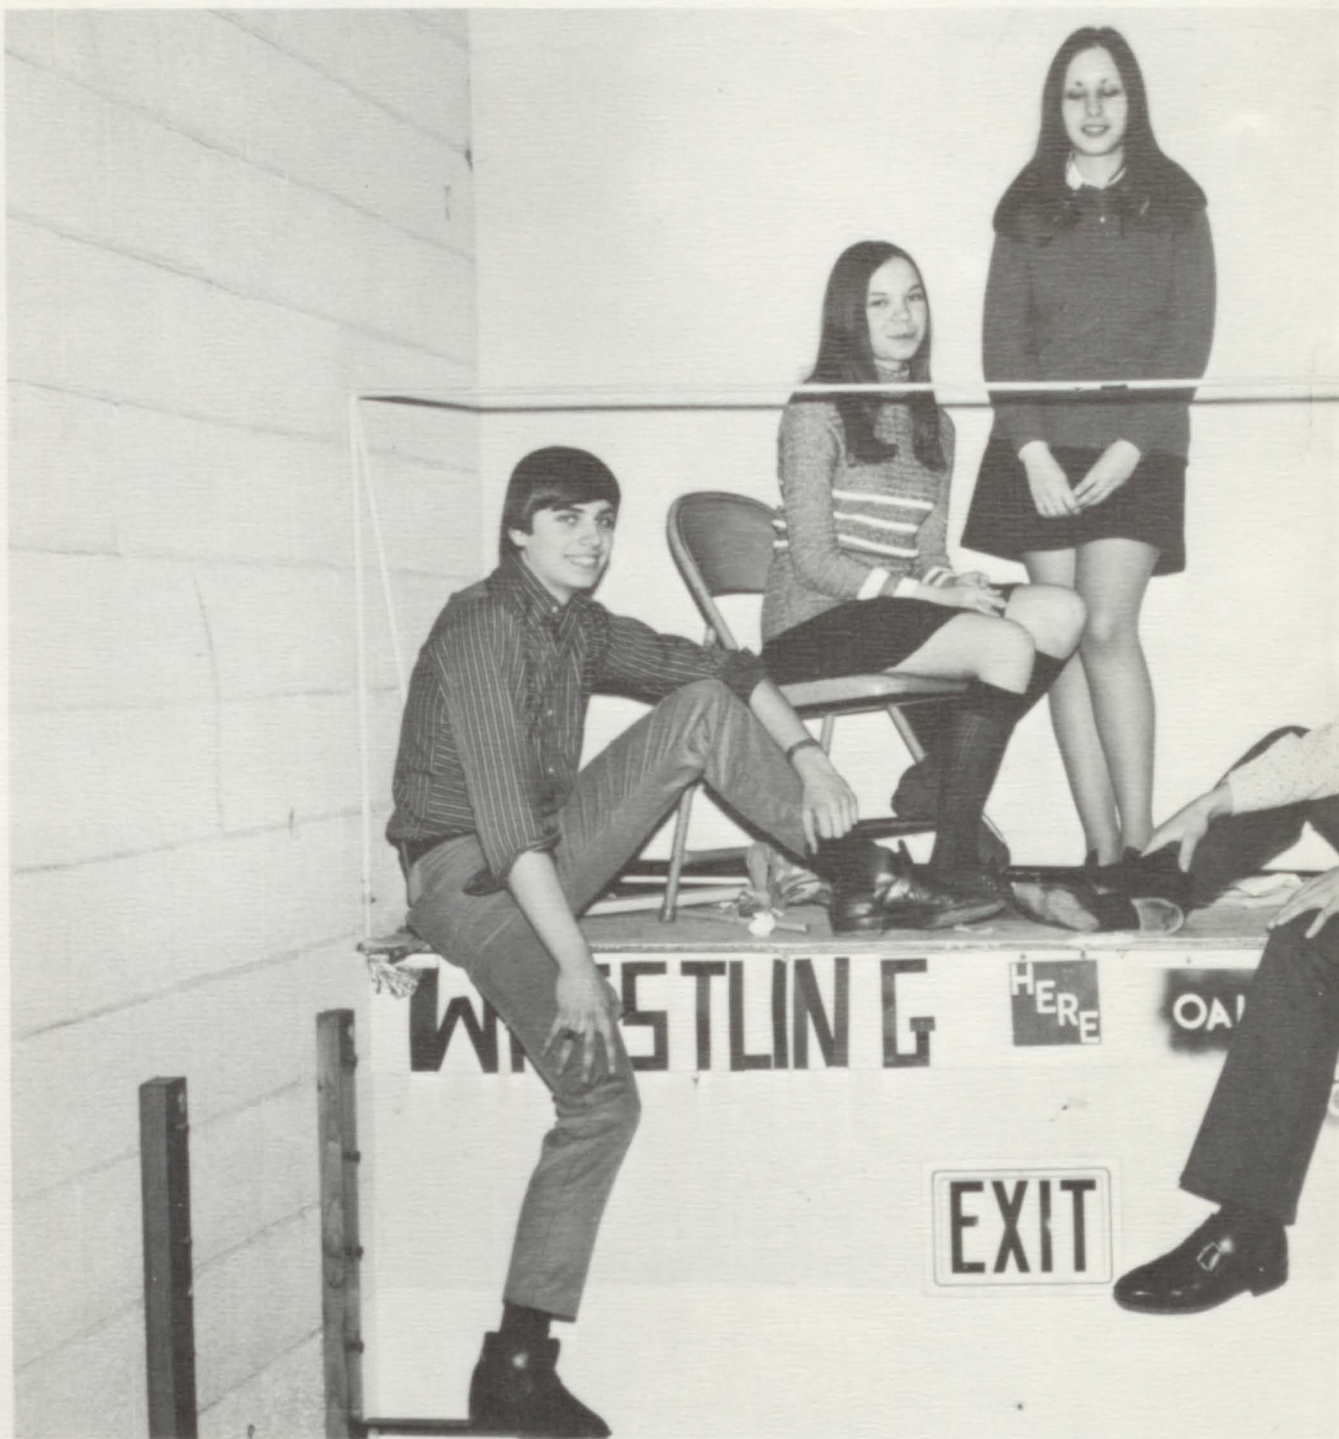

When asked how his years at NHS had affected his outlook on life and the future, he answered, "My four years at NHS have made me look at things with a different view. I have started to rid myself of prejudice. In my Senior year the students on a whole were friendlier and broader-minded. It made it easier for me to decide what I wanted to do in future years." Mark has decided to attend college and become a social worker. Good Luck to you!

MISS NORTHWEST: LINDA ROSS

Linda was also chosen by her class of 1972, having those certain qualities of leadership, scholarship, and personality. Her fine qualities can be seen in her many activities, which include being a cheerleader for four years, being a member of Student Council, the Annual Staff, Y-Teens, baseball scorekeeper, Office Help, B.O.E. Club, and Chorus. She is a member of the Church of Christ and her hobbies and interests include riding horses, taking long walks, the Church, people, and music.

When asked how her years at NHS had affected her outlook on life and the future, she replied, "Attending school here has helped me to understand and appreciate people as individuals. I have learned that life isn't just having a good time but that it takes work and respect for others." Linda has planned to get a job after graduation and may in the future attend Bible College.
