MR. HARRY L. PELLEY
Superintendent

We, the seniors of 1957, wish to express our parting greeting to you Mr. Pelley, Mrs. Shook, Mr. Ketter, Faculty, and Board of Education. We can never say in words what you have meant to us. We have matured and achieved a measure of culture as a result of our four years association with you at Northwest High School. Learning has not always been easy, and at times, we chafed under each other's presence. But, for the most part, it was a journey into a land of untold wealth. Perhaps our tribute to you is best expressed in these lines, "The teacher, whether mother, priest, or school-master, is the real maker of history."

DO YOU REMEMBER?

Through an icy-bordered window, exhibiting the full effects of winter, you are gazing into a comfortable living room of an average home. The time is mid-winter in the year 2000. Though fire places are no longer in vogue, a middle-aged couple sit placidly around the fire and seem to radiate a glow of inner warmth. They possess a love for things of a bygone age, and the fire-place signifies to them a means of relaxing and retracing the past. Who are they? You may call them Mr. and Mrs. Senior of the Class of 1957, graduates of Northwest High School. What are they doing? Why—retracing their high school days together—what else! The woman, Mrs. Senior, is holding a book in her hand as Mr. Senior gazes intently into the fire. He speaks in husky tones—

"I remember so well our freshman year at Clinton. We were all so new at this game of high school. I remember how excited we were when the sophomores, juniors, and seniors consolidated with Canal Fulton High School leaving us to be the oldest class at Clinton. Mr. Meecham became our class sponsor, and we elected Margie Wilhelm, Bill Stinson, Nancy Paul, and Helen Reece as our officers. Our class was quite active that year. Using the money we earned in our freshman year, we chartered a Greyhound bus and went to Columbus, Ohio, on our class trip. I don't think any students could have enjoyed their freshman year as much as we managed to do."

"Now, dear, that's just your opinion. I remember my own beginning of high school vividly. We freshmen from Canal Fulton were different in one respect. Whereas you were the oldest class remaining at Clinton, we were the youngest class at the new Northwest High School located in Canal Fulton. We began our year in the Fulton High School gym, designated as our homeroom, and elected Tom Culp, Sherry Gilcher, Marilyn Pauli, and Roy Ray as our officers. Mr. Rannigan and Mr. Prokop became our sponsors. Those nine months really flew! Do you remember when we celebrated the conclusion of our freshman year in a get-acquainted picnic at Clay's Park?"

"Do you recall the significance of our sophomore year? In the fall of 1954 the two former freshman classes combined to form one sophomore class at Northwest High School. Because of the crowded conditions in the Fulton High School building, we had to be divided alphabetically into two homerooms. Mr. Prata became our sponsor. We chose Marie LeBerth, Tom Culp, Sherry Gilcher, and Margie Wilhelm to officiate at our class meetings. Remember when we chose our class jackets and rings? When our jackets arrived, we felt that we had really become a part of Northwest High. We really wore them everywhere? Remember the Beggar's Ball, our first class-sponsored dance?"

"Yes, dear, those first two years were wonderful, but don't you agree that our junior and senior years offered the most challenge? I think the class grew under its new responsibility and each one of us tried to do his part to make our class a success."

"I certainly do agree! Our junior year was truly the busiest—so full of money-making schemes. After all, it was a matter of "do or die"! We had a prom that year to plan, and we certainly didn't sit around twiddling our thumbs about it. We worked. Under the able sponsorship of Mrs. Lawrence, without whom we couldn't have succeeded, we accumulated money through bake sales class dues, sales of megaphones, holding the football and basketball concessions, sales of ball point pens, sponsoring our January sixth dance, presentation of our junior play, and a scrap and paper drive. Our efforts were certainly rewarded in the success of our prom. We held our prom at the Onesto Hotel in Canton, Ohio, on May fifth. Our theme was "Memories Are Made of This" in a color scheme of blue and silver. Our banquet began at six in the Onesto ballroom, and everyone looked perfectly "chic" in his new finery. Do you recall Barb's and Jack's speeches. And remember the professional dancers from the Arthur Murray Studio? I'll never forget that all at once during the dancing, a mass of floating balloons descended on us and the commotion which followed."

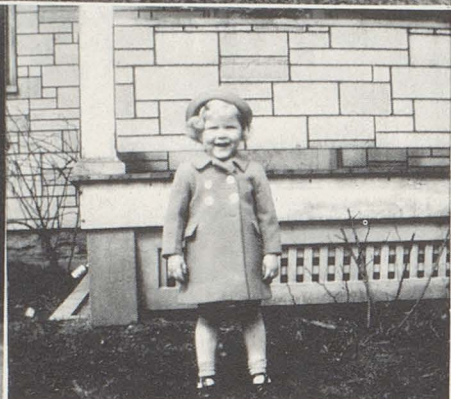

"Leaving the Onesto we became a part of the train of cars driving to the Lincoln Theater in Massillon where we saw that movie, "The Conqueror", starring John Wayne and Susan Hayward. We concluded our night of nights with a breakfast at Northwest High School."

"Who were our officers that year? That's right. They were Jack Haney, Marie LeBerth, Margie Wilhelm, and John Shondel."

"Will you ever forget that fall of 1956 when we moved into the new building? It seems such a coincidence that we seniors were the first to graduate from the new Northwest High School—as if we were destined for that special honor. We elected Jack, Marie, Margie, and Tom Culp officers; Mrs. Lawrence our sponsor. We chose the red rose as class flower, blue and silver as class colors, and "The Reward of Effort is Success" as class motto. From then on it was: pictures, annual! invitations! robes! play! dance! baccalaureate! commencement! almost as fast as I can say it."

*'Look not mournfully into the past; it returns no more.
Wisely improve the Present.'*

OUTSTANDING!

We, the seniors of 1957, proudly salute our "genius club", those classmates who have excelled in scholastic achievement above and beyond the call of duty. Scholastic achievement constitutes the very essence of a school, and interscholastic competition is the means by which that reputation is attained. Each of the above students has successfully participated in forensic, essay, or scholarship competition. Four of the group have earned covered trips as a result of their scholastic and citizenship qualities. We congratulate you, fellow students, on your outstanding leadership and scholastic achievement! An old Persian proverb states, "He who knows and knows that he knows is wise. Follow him."

ACTIVITIES

Many people ask, "What do extra-curricular activities do for a student?" In answer to this query—they provide opportunities for students to work and play together and to develop character. A well-balanced and efficiently applied program of extra-curricular activities is a natural means of securing desirable self-expression; this self-expression is essential to social, mental, and spiritual growth. Students learn to co-operate with one another and gain valuable experience in the art of living. Edwin Markham once said,

*There is a destiny that makes us brothers. None goes his way alone;
All that is sent into the lives of others Comes back into our own.*

HI-Y

HI-Y comprises the teenage branch of the YMCA. "To create, maintain, and extend, throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character," is the expressed purpose of the HI-Y. Mr. Phillips and Mr. Luther are the advisers.

VARSIY "N" CLUB

The Varsity "N" Club is comprised of all athletes who have earned letters in interscholastic competition. These young men have relinquished many hours of their time in an effort to make our school outstanding in athletic competition.

LATIN CLUB

The Latin Club represents the classical element at Northwest High School. It is pledged to promote the study and appreciation of classical civilization in the modern world. The Northwest Club is a branch of the national organization, the Junior Classical League. Miss Fletcher is the adviser.

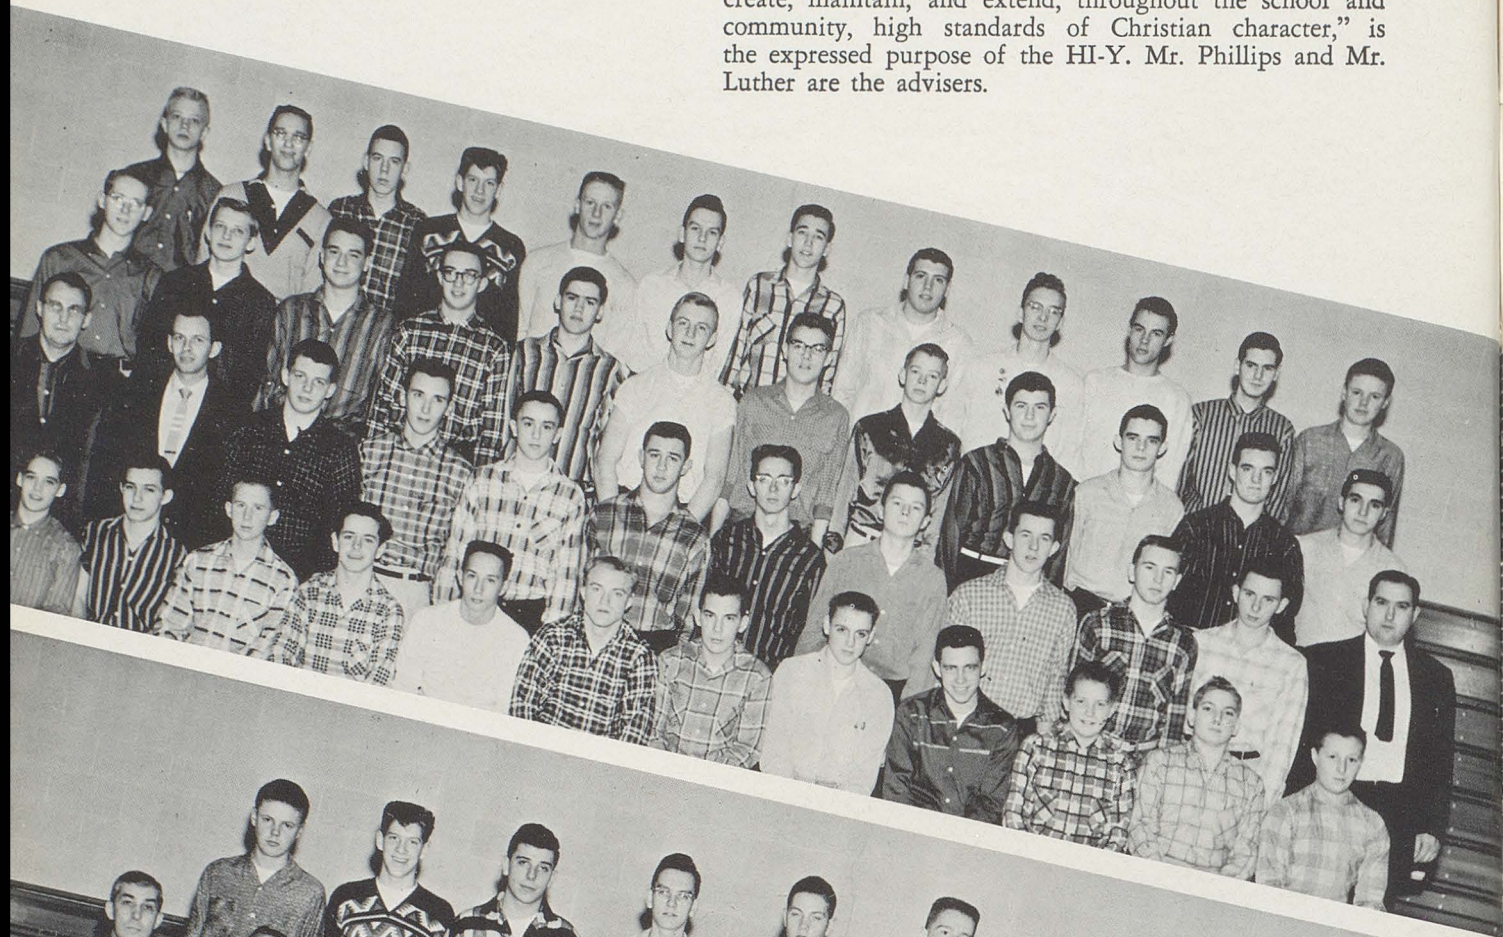

Y-TEENS

The Y-Teens comprise the teenage organization of the YWCA. Each girl is dedicated to the following purpose: "To build a fellowship of women and girls devoted to the task of realizing in our common life those ideals of personal and social living to which we are committed by our faith as Christians." Miss Fletcher is the adviser.

'Neath Education's sway,
Soars upward still.*

MUSIC

ON PARADE

We, the seniors of 1957, commend the music department for its contribution to our cultural and social education. Under the guidance of Mr. Puffenberger, we have broadened our education to include those fundamentals of rhythm, melody, and feeling which are essential in attaining a fuller life. Mr. Puffenberger has attempted to cultivate within us a sensitivity to beauty through music. In addition, each student has learned to function as part of a unified group, yet maintaining his own individuality. Need we say that we are forever indebted to our music department, and we sincerely hope you underclassmen maintain the music tradition at Northwest High School.

The orchestra is a small but apt organization of musicians whose chief purpose is to play for special activities including plays, dances, and commencement. The orchestra is under the direction of Mr. Puffenberger.

CHORUS

The music program at Northwest would not be complete without a mixed chorus. The chorus presented performances at all the music functions this year. We at Northwest are very proud of our chorus and its director, Mr. Puffenberger.

OUR GRIDIRON

This section of "The Chieftain" is dedicated to the athletes and the coaches of Northwest High School. The new athletic field and gymnasium provide wonderful facilities for the advancement of sports. Aiming always at good sportsmanship, the coaching department, through a varied athletic program, seeks to make men from boys—"so when the Master Referee scores against our name, it won't be whether we've won or lost, but how we've played the game."

FUN

A good time is always the goal of the students and faculty when they participate in specific extra-curricular activities such as the Homecoming, Snowball, and Prom. The rustle and bustle of net and lace fills the atmosphere with the anticipation of a memorable evening. So it is every year when comes time for these gala events.

HOMEcoming

Our Homecoming Queen was Jan Digman and her attendants were Judi Moke, Patty Walsh, Wandalee Hofsteter, and Sandy Duma who were escorted by Jack Haney, Dick Swisher, Bob Gindlesberger, and Gene Sliger, respectively. Queen Jan was escorted by Tom Culp. The Homecoming Dance was held in the auditorium of the Canal Fulton building on September 29, the night after the game with North Canton.

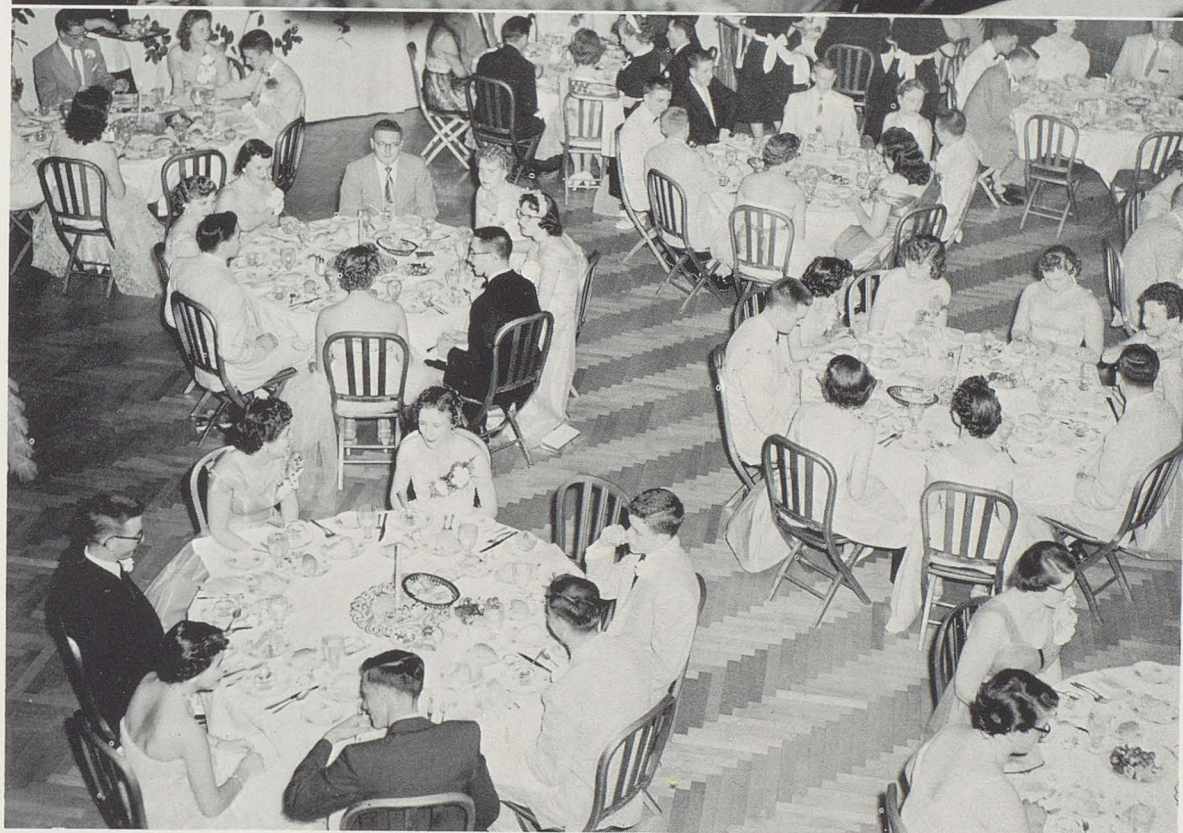

SNOWBALL

Wanda Shipley reigned as Snowball Queen at the Y-Teen Christmas formal on December 22, 1956. Identity of the queen was not revealed until the crowning ceremonies. The court included Judy Fudge, Lois Stockert, Virginia Fox, and Elizabeth Siber. The HI-Y, also participating in the event, elected Jack Haney Snowball King, and Tom Culp, Bud Lindeman, Tom Reighart, and John Shondel as escorts. Music was furnished by Jimmy George's orchestra.

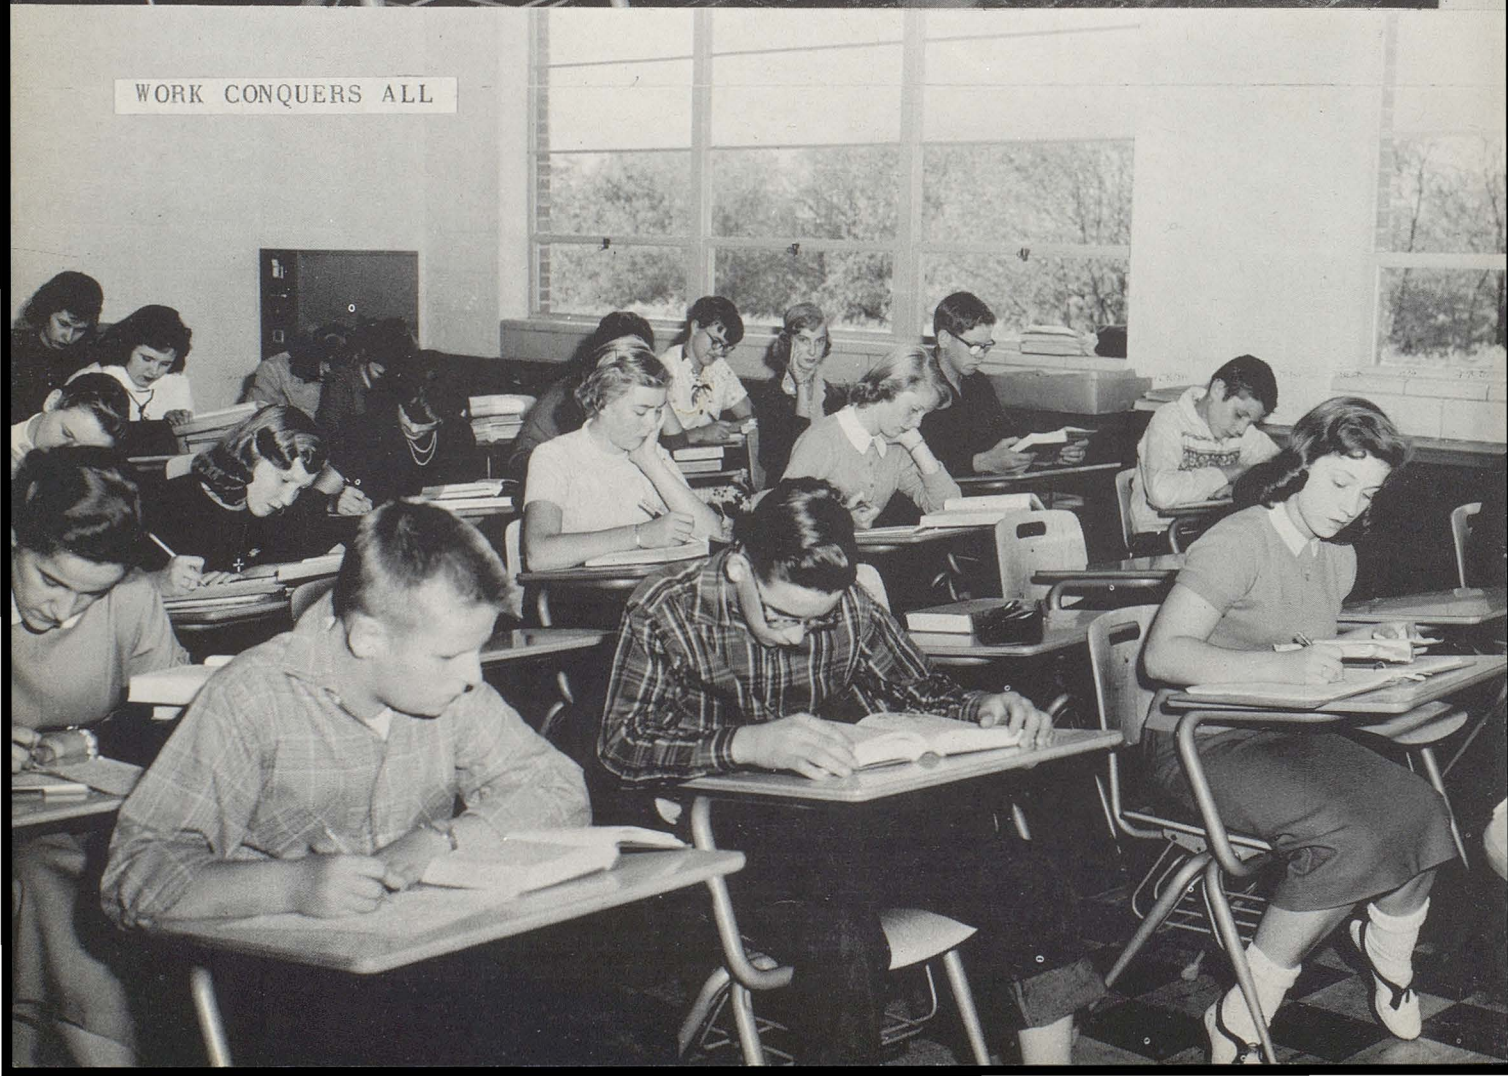

PROM

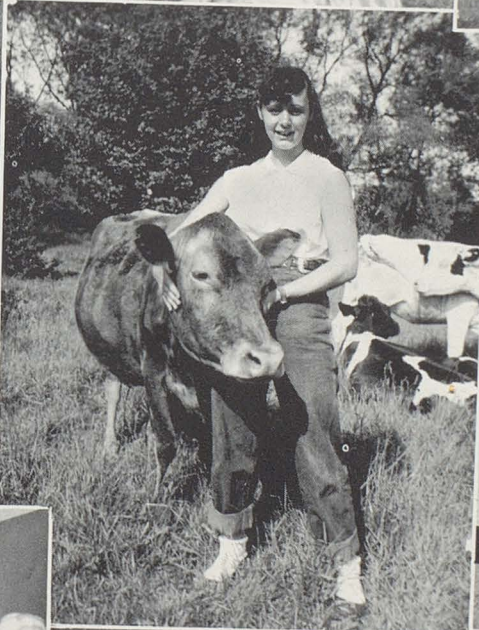

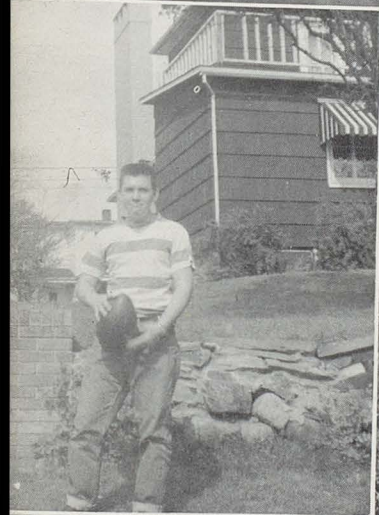

The Junior-Senior Prom of 1956 was held at the Hotel Onesto in Canton. Following the dance, members of the two classes and their dates attended a movie at the Lincoln Theater in Massillon. To conclude the festivities, breakfast was served at the school by the parents of the junior class members. Everyone enjoyed himself and all agreed the prom was a big success.

LUNCH

Home is where you make it

IF the job's there, and you can get it—go ahead. Nobody can stop you from crossing state lines, choosing your own job. In America you have a right to work anywhere you please. Lots of people in other countries wish they had this same freedom.

If you lived behind the Iron Curtain—or under that kind of government—you'd be expendable manpower, nothing else. You'd work where you were told to work, at any job the state said you should do. You'd have no choice. You couldn't hope for better working conditions, criticize the boss, or pick up and leave.

You know...it's really something, this freedom to work where you please. It's a precious heritage, part of being an American. And doesn't it give you the shudders to realize that there are people who'd like to take this right—put us all under Iron Curtain working conditions? Let's not let it happen...

Keep your rights, all of them, including this one. Speak up for them. Resist any movement to take them away. Don't let anyone talk down your freedom. Compare what you've got with what they've got—and keep your right to work where you choose!

The best way to protect your rights is to know them and treat them right by exercising them.
