Meet The Staff

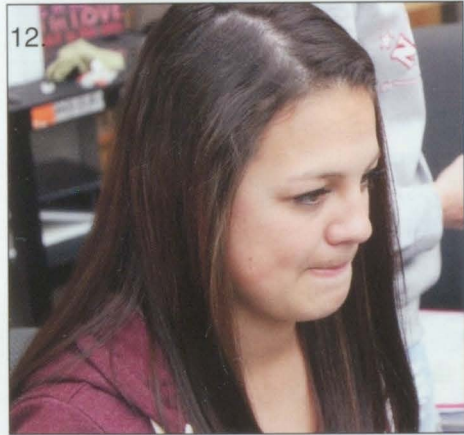

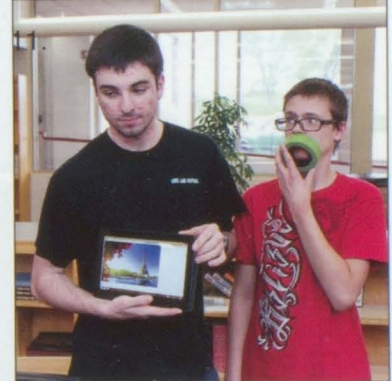

The Northwest Chieftain

9. Freshmen, Bekah Cornell and Caleb Lopez comparing their ideas for the freshmen pages. 10. Sophomore Aaliyah Greek and Junior Baylie Horvath celebrates a glorious day for picture taking. 11. Sophomores Jake Morton and Drayton Allison shows off their hard work with photoshop. 12. Junior Ashley Kittenger focuses on her page while nosy people surround her. 13. Seniors Kyle Murgatroyd and Molly Ogg study past yearbooks for inspiration. 14. Morgan Rearick is being camera shy. She does not enjoy being the one in front of the camera. 15. Mrs. Haynam rounds up her staff to make the yearbook great. 16. Senior Gyllian Kavalchek takes a quick break from working on her page, to look cute. She says "I really enjoys her picture being taken." 17. Freshman Morgan Villegas thinks hard about the quotes that she has just gotten. She enjoyed getting to know new people through the yearbook class.

Freshmen

Micayla Smith, Nicholas Rutt, Gabrielle Zink, Angelia Nicolardi, and Teresa Jones have a blast at the Northwest fall pep rally. They all had fun getting out of class and cheering for their peers in the race.

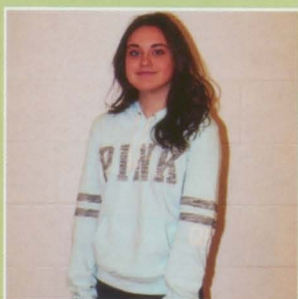

Julianne Schlitt and Kyle Inghram partner up to translate a paper in Spanish. They helped each other in class by studying flash cards together for upcoming tests.

Nicholas Milinkovich and Joshua Woodward take a break from their science work in Mrs. Roschival's room and pose for a picture. Both of them finished early and spent the rest of the time hanging out.

Leah Koval, Anna Dills, and Amanda Cabell smile through working on a science worksheet together. Since they got to choose their seats, the three friends had fun sitting next to each other for the year.

Jennifer Vancamp and Olivia Wyles enjoy their time at the Blizzard Bash and dance around the floor. Both of them had fun at the dinner before and while getting ready with friends.

Katelyn Ohler, Emily Caldwell, Rebekah Cornell, and Lauren Kujath are all painted up for the first varsity home football game against Cloverleaf. They joined the rest of the student section for the whiteout and watched our team take home a 19-0 victory.

Madison Fightmaster and Madison Dinkins celebrate the football team's victory at a home game. After spending the game cheering in the student section, they met up on the field for a picture in the crowd.

1. The boys varsity soccer team huddles together, at Triway, to explain their strategy for on the field. After a tough battle, the team left the loss on the field and kept smiles on their faces. 2. Sophomores, Maddy Markus and Kelsey Francis, cheer on the J.V. boys football team at one of the home games. "Cheering in the stadium is my favorite part of football season, the energy from the fans allowed me and my other teammates to stay pumped!" Maddy expressed. 3. At the fall pep rally, staff members Mr. Staats and Mr. Cocklin take on a penny war against each other to see who would get iced. It ended in a tie, with both of them taking on the chill of ice cubes. 4. At the fall pep rally, Seniors Nick Hearn and Brian Belles participate in ships and sailors! Brian Belles yelled "jump!" to Nick Hearn when the cheerleaders called "Lovers leap!" 5. Sophomores, Abbie Swaino and Sidney Ailiff, play at a tournament in Jackson. They weren't sure why they were laughing, but they always try to make the best out of a bad situation together as a team. 6. Senior, Maddie Stackhouse gets crowned as homecoming queen. "At first it didn't even hit me that is was my name. I started clapping like it was someone else, until I saw Meredith walking up to me. I was really honored and surprised!" Maddie exclaimed. 7. Seniors, Sam Miller and Nick Sanchez sing "Guys and Dolls" at the Singers concert. They sang their hearts out at one of their last concerts, as seniors.

8. At the Dover Invitational, the whole boys' cross country team earned metals for their outstanding meet. It was their first meet where they all earned a metal. 9. Junior, Collin Rood, drives the ball at one of his last holes of the match. Collin thought this home match was one of his best since the beginning of the season. 10. Sophomore, Kylie Collmar, sings the National Anthem before the homecoming game against New Philly. She was really nervous because it was her first time singing in front of a huge crowd! 11. Students cheer on the football team at the very first football game of the season against Cloverleaf! The students first white out ended as a win! 12. Senior, Grace Stockert, peaces out the camera during homecoming spirit week for hippie day. It was one of the days when she could bring out her groove! 13. Junior, Jimmy Waring and Sophomore, Broc Minne were feeling great as they were winning their first home game against Cloverleaf. They exclaimed that that was a great way to start the season.

Coach Vic Whiting, Assistant Coaches Jordan Pellikan, Ray Keller, Shane Minne, Dave Maculaitis, Tyler Harris, Zaid Abueteen, Shawn Donaldson, Mike Calcei, Mike Bechtel, Travis Stroh - 3 wins, 7 losses

The 2014 Northwest Indian Football Team was "the man in the arena." With only a few senior starters and an inexperienced group of underclassmen in starting positions, the Indians began the season with 3 wins and 1 loss. The next five games proved quite difficult for the team, as they lost all five. The season came to an end with an upsetting loss to Division II Barberton. "We practiced hard, we gave it our best shot," says Coach Whiting. "The seniors who played this year did a great job, there just weren't enough of them." But with 7 sophomores and a freshman starting this year, there is a lot of experience to gain, and the future is looking bright for the Northwest Indians. They always broke team huddles with, "Play hard, play together," and they definitely accomplished that goal.

Senior, Drew Schroeder, rips through the Northwest Indian banner in a pregame celebration alongside teammates, Sophomores, Logan Waggoner and Broc Minne. 5. Junior, Matthew Fennell, waits in anticipation with his team to see if an injured player is okay. 6. Sophomore, Nasir Martin, reaches out to catch a punt. 7. The athletic trainer girls, Juniors Haley Pullen, Sarah Butti, and Makenzie Boecker with Senior, Courtney Ridenour, hold up the personnel signs for the offense. 8. Sophomore, Joe Waring, evades a tackle while running the ball at the New Philadelphia home game.

Junior Varsity Football

"Champions are made, not born."

Riley Wagner

Junior Varsity Football was a blast! J.V. games are all about having fun. Mixing in freshmen players to fill the holes left by some of the sophomores and juniors who played varsity the night before. Blending freshmen, sophomores, and juniors into one complete team makes Saturday morning football games exciting. Younger players get their chance to show their stuff and to make some big plays. These players are gaining experience so that they can compete for a starting varsity spot on Friday nights. A 5-5 season was highlighted by outstanding plays and great effort from these players. Mix in the weight room and one year of growth, and these will be next year's Friday night heroes!

"If you think you are green, you'll ripen. If you think you are ripe, you'll rot"

The 2014 freshman team had a good year. Many players played freshmen games and also chipped in to the J.V. games on saturday. With freshman Eli Beers starting on varsity and a few players gone from last year's 8th grade team, many players were able to step up into bigger roles as freshmen. Outstanding plays highlighted every game as the team rolled up a 4-6 record playing against mostly larger schools. These players worked hard to improve and prepare themselves to compete for varsity and junior varsity positions next year.

After losing so many seniors the previous season, the girls held their own. It was hard to adjust to a new coaching staff and new philosophies within a couple of months, but they worked extremely hard, mentally and physically. The seniors' great leadership helped the team bond with the new coaches, and also helped them with a win against Tusky Valley early in the season. Since almost everyone will be back next year, the coaches have their goals set high. The girls have made great strides this year and have made great team as well as individual achievements.

Coach Chelsea Harvey, 12 Wins and 8 losses

While adjusting to a new coach this year, the season started off on a high note with the team winning their first game against Massillon. Practices were tough, but that's what made the team better. They were a second game winning team, but closer to the end of the season they learned how to work together to come out strong and win the first game. The girls would do their basic warm up along with listening to music in the locker room to get pumped up and ready for the game. The team greatly improved on their skills and had a great season. By the end of the season they had accomplished their two biggest goals; have a winning record and go after every ball.

The squads this year were rather large! Nine girls were selected for each of the three squads, which really helped add more excitement to the sidelines! On Varsity, there were 4 Seniors and 5 Juniors, on J.V., there were 3 Juniors, and 6 Sophomores, and obviously 9 Freshmen on the Freshman Squad. A new tradition also started this year of having the J.V. squad join Varsity under the Friday night lights at home games. This really helped the squads grow closer than ever. Overall, it was a great season we will never forget!

This year on the Northwest Indians golf team, players had a good time walking up and down the fairway, sharing inside jokes, and enjoying their season as a team. Junior, Tyler Fouty said that not one player had improved the most, but the team in general had improved greatly. Tristan Lindeman said that he thought John Markus was the MVP of the team because he had a hole in one. They had a great record of eight wins and four losses. The players look forward to having more Seniors on the team and golfing in the next season.

"The Few, the Proud, the Runners."

-Northwest Corss Country Team

Route

Coach Brian Armstrong

They had a great season with a very talented group of kids with almost all the varsity runners returning from last year. They were able to improve greatly and placed well at all their meets. They made it to regionals for the second year in a row and placed 9th out of the 16 teams that competed, a good follow up to last year's regionals where they placed 14th.

Senior, Burke Kepley bolts in front of his competitors in a full sprint. He left the competition in the dust. 4. Senior, Patrick Wells running with the crowd at the GlenOak meet. He inched his way to the finish line. 5. Senior, Alex Vales staying ahead. He smoked the competition, finishing with one of the best times of his career. 6. Senior, Mackenzie Schley pacing herself as she makes her way to the finish line. She did her best and finished strong. 7. Sophomore, Alicia Tudor coming in close to Senior, Mackenzie Schley. She blew out the other female opponents. 8. Junior, Evan Petty passing a fellow runner in stride at the Dover meet. He placed 7th overall. 9. Senior, Alex Vales chillaxing before a race. He pondered what the outcome of the race would be. 10. Junior, Justin Hinkle charging for the finish line at the GlenOak meet. He didn't break a sweat.

Coach Dave Cooper, Assistant Coach Dakota Wamsley - 5 wins 11 losses 1 tie

With a new coach, the team had a lot of new practices that they were not accustomed to, however through sheer determination the young team managed to get a few wins and even placed second in the Barberton Magic City tournament. With so many young players the team looks toward the future and plans to have an amazing season in 2015.

1. Senior, Kyle Murgatroyd and Senior, Stephen Zeh are taking a well deserved break. They had a hard fought game against Fairless. 2. Junior, Jacob Hyrne battles for possession. He scored the only goal against Central Catholic. 3. Striker and Junior, Nate Weaver looks to make a run against Ellet. He scored the winning goal. 4. Freshman, Dillon Petty moves into position to take a shot against Dover. The shot was unfortunately blocked. 5. Senior, Brian Belles stares in frustration after Lake scores their 4th goal. Lake won 6-0. 6. Freshman, Dionysus Morris Evans fights a St. Thomas player for the ball. He tried for a shot but it was blocked. 7. The team sits and listens to a talk from Coach Cooper. Although spirits were raised, it wasn't enough to overcome Dover. 8. Junior, Jacob Demaree dribbles down the pitch to take a shot. It was miraculously saved.

"I love all those Girls! We did awesome this season! I loved playing on the new turf and having Mr. Green as coach. Good luck to the girls next year! So proud!!"

-Hannah Brotherton, Sr

"A memory I'll never forget is the whole team riding in style on scooters at Ohio Northern pre-season soccer camp. We had lots of fun at camp!"

-Maddie Stackhouse, Sr

Coach Scott Green - 9 wins, 5 losses, 4 tie

Route

Starting the season with only 6 returning varsity players, the team anticipated a tough year. But after their first game, winning 10-0, the girls knew it could be done! Everyone had to step up and fill in those positions, some playing varsity for the first time! Coach Green really got us on track and made sure this season we'd do our best and win!! He was a blessing and will be missed next year, as this was his last year being Coach for the Lady Indians. Coach Green was the Stark County Coach of the Year for the fifth time in twelve years for a good reason! The Seniors were lucky to have such a good coach, friend, and mentor for all four of their high school years.

1. Sophomore, Savannah Farkas steals the ball from an opponent in the first game of the season on our new turf! 2. Senior, Kennedy Rutt kicks the ball downfield to her forwards. Kennedy rose to the occasion this year to fill in as defender the last half of the season. 3. Sophomore, Bailey Bloom blasts the ball downfield on a free kick. Bailey fought hard through a knee injury most of the season but she stayed strong, pushing through the pain. 4. Senior, Olivia Rooks, dribbles downfield on a break away. Olivia says breakaways were her favorite; they helped her score 3 varsity goals for the season. 5. The Seniors plow through their banner on senior night. They have been waiting for that moment since freshman year! 6. Senior, Captain Jordan Snelick shouts for her defense to move up the field after she blocks a good shot on goal. Jordan loved to use her voice and was always heard yelling at those on the field. 7. Senior Captains, Hannah Brotherton and Jess Demaree celebrate after Jess scores on Senior Night against Massillon. Celebrating with the team running to you is the best part of scoring! 8. Sophomores, Morgan King and Brynn Shirey pose with Senior, Nikki Polkabl on Senior Night. They will miss their seniors next year! 9. The players join together in prayer lead by Coach Green. This is the time where they get their minds focused and ready to play.

1. Junior Abby Bonnot says her favorite memory from the past season was when she scored the first goal and later, last goal on the new turf. 2. Freshman Jessica Hagen fights hard against Coventry's defense. To get into the right mind set for a game she said, "You have to think positive and just do it." 3. Sophomore Neeley Stark says her favorite part about playing soccer is the feeling you get right before a game. You know, win or lose, you got to play with some of your best friends making memories you can't forget. 4. Sophomore, Nicole Wood said she loved playing goalie, mainly because she liked the pressure put on her to save every shot. 5. Sophomore, Amber Bowyer says the best part about subbing as a goalie was being able to see everyone on the field push themselves in ways she cannot explain. Her favorite memory from the season was when the J.V. team huddled in Hoban's press box to keep warm as Varsity played.

"Homecoming is Out of this World"

Homecoming this year was a hit. You could say it was out of this world! The students were blasting off at the speed of the music. Everyone was in awe at the inflatable solar system and the murals of the planets on the wall. The dance held many activities that everyone could be a part of including a contest of who could play the best air guitar and a dance off around the orbit of the sun. Scott Wormald and Nate Wise won by one throwing the other into a backflip. The only disappointment this year was they only offered water and no slushies.

1. Junior, Nathan Booth and Senior, Regen Morgan dance the night away at the Blizzard Bash. Nathan said he learned many dance moves from Alex Vales that night and it had been one of the most moving experiences of his life. 2. Junior, Nate Gissinger takes down his opponent from Massillon. At this home tournament, Nate walked off with a victory. 3. Sophomores, Jake Morton and Drayton Allison work hard to make progress in yearbook class. As Jake worked on photoshop, Drayton made some dubstep jams to listen to. 4. Teammates Mr. Lower and Ms. Thomas high five as they were introduced at the winter pep rally's students vs. teachers basketball game. Both laughed at the humorous fatheads their team had made to give the crowd a laugh. "5'9...6'4 with the afro", exclaims Mr. Lower. 5. Senior, Jordan Snelick and juniors, Joe Cochran and Justin Hinkle sit down to strap on their snowboards for ski club. "Life is like a snowglobe, so let it snow," Justin stated. 6. During spirit week right before winter break, some of our Northwest students huddle together to show off their elf costumes. These Northwest students also participated in the other spirit days by dressing up in ugly sweaters, pajamas, and in funny holiday wear. 7. Mrs. Baer waves as she was spotted in the crowd at a boys home basketball game. This season has been truly great for all members of the Northwest wrestling team. From victories and losses to rivalry and pride, the team has earned its title and even more. The team has done very well with Senior Chris Jackson, Juniors Kyle Myers, Nate Gissinger and Sophomore Hunter Kosco leading the way. "I am very proud of the whole team," states head coach Zack Meissner. Their individual skills have shown through on more than one occasion, none more apparent than in the tournaments where their skills have truly been uncovered. This year's State Qualifiers were Dalton Cox, Kyle Myers & Hunter Kosco. Hunter Kosco took home the 3rd place trophy on his second trip to State Competition.

The 2015 Varsity Girls Basketball season was challenging. The girls played mainly division I schools but that didn't get their spirits down. During their practices they trained hard. With such a young team and only one senior, this season has shown to be a learning experience. They worked hard despite their lack of numbers due to injuries. They have learned so much this year and they are excited to continue to learn and play next year as well!

The girls J.V. basketball season started out rough. The girls soon realized that the way to win was to work as a team! They bonded during practices and at team meet-ups where they enjoyed hanging out and playing games. Soon all their effort put in produced some results and it all fell in place. The girls become a really cooperative team and started to win towards the end of their season. Their continued efforts to become the best will pay off in the coming years!

This winter cheer season the Varsity, Junior Varsity, and Freshman cheerleaders cheered their hearts out at each and every game. The Varsity squad had 10 total cheerleaders for basketball, 5 seniors and 5 juniors. According to the Seniors, the girls worked hard to cheer on the Varsity boys during their games. The Junior Varsity squad had 8 total cheerleaders for basketball, 3 juniors and 5 sophomores. The freshman had 5 total cheerleaders on their basketball squad. All of the girls within these different squads had their individual improvements and grew closer as the season moved on. "New friendships were made and we became united as one!"- says the Freshman girls. The five seniors must say goodbye to the last season of the year, but the others are looking forward to another wonderful year, next year!

Winter formal was a true Blizzard Bash this year. With the shimmering decorations, electronic lights, and dancing music, students from all ages joined in the fun. The normal Auxiliary Gym was transformed into a Winter Wonderland especially for the dance. This year, Dairy Queen blizzards were available to everyone, instead of people that answered trivia questions. People gathered around the dance floor to show off their moves, especially in the center circle. Sophomore Caitlin Ross says that formal was a blast, even though some people might not think so. She's even looking forward to seeing more students, hopefully, attend next year. Whether it was your last formal or your first, Northwest's Blizzard Bash was truly a night to remember.

7. Freshmen Olivia Wyles and Nasya Rechel show off their skills line dancing with the crowd. 8. Senior Stephen Zeh and Sophomore Kelsey Francis spend their time sharing a dance with each other. The two of them had a fantastic time at the dance. 9. Juniors Hailey Sabol and Alyssa Strabley get their blizzards while they take a picture together. After the dance, Hailey went bowling with her friends. 10. Sophomores Ryan Gregorich and Claire Sutphin, Junior Nathan Weaver and Sophomore Madison Markus, Sophomore Logan Waggoner and Junior Alexis Watkins, and Sophomores Christopher Barbita and Caitlin Ross move and groove to the beat in their group.

For the past three years Pep Club has sponsored the Man of the Year show. The contestants are very outgoing senior boys who are willing to take time out of their busy schedules and lives to put on a show for not only the students, but also the community! During the show, there are many parts that these boys have to plan for. Practice begins weeks before the show occurs. Whether it be the beach scene, opening dance, talent, or even the introduction these boys are practicing. But fortunately they don't have to do all of this practicing on their own, they have the girls in pep club to help them! Pep club members help makeup the opening dance, make t-shirts, slogans, and even pick one or two boys to coach! As a coach these members help the contestant come up with a talent, help them find something to wear for the beach scene, formal attire, talent and introduction! Some members, such as Hannah Brotherton, even help out during the talent! Our winner this year was Nick Hearn! He stole the show with his natural charm and charismatic personality. This show is such a unique program that our high school offers. We hope that it can continue for many more years to come!

1. Senior, Michael Finney, dances to Micheal Jackson during his introduction in the show. 2. Senior, Phillip Strassini, is cracks people up with his hilarious jokes as his talent. 3. Seniors, Chuck Kirkpatrick, Michael Zervos, Brian Belles, and Justin Helman, and Cory Earnsberger all line up to be judged during the formal wear portion of the show. 4. All of the contestants dance in a conga line before the show in an opening dance. 5. Senior, Logan Eisner, dances to the song Dance of the Sugar Plum Fairy as his talent during the show. 6. Seniors, Patrick Wells and Trent Wilhelm, pose for a picture during a break in the show. 7. Senior, Adam Brunner, runs around during his introduction. 8. Seniors, Hannah Brotherton and Nick Hearn, "work out" during Nick's talent in the show!

Senior, Jared Tompcsik rolls out on stage in a trash can during his first appearance. He thought it would be a pretty cool first impression for the judges. 11. Senior, Justin Trompower, decides to "make it rain" during his Introduction. This added to his rapping theme during his talent. 12. All of the contestants join together to take a photo before the show. They all have grown so close during the show! 13. Senior, Nick Sanchez, asks Junior, Audra Ball, to prom while singing their favorite song during his act in the show... she said yes! 14. Senior, Jeff Shimko saves his BEARY best buddy during his beachwear portion of the show. 15. Seniors, Trent Wilhelm, Patrick Wells, and Alex Vales all sing "Stay" together during their act. 16. Senior, Nick Hearn, reads a calming book on the beach during his beachwear scene. It is one of his favorite hobbies! 17. Senior, Brian Belles, makes the final alley-oup during his talent.

9. Mr. Ludwig, Northwest's resident computer tech, shows the student body his groovy skills by slapping the bass with the jazz band during the Christmas concert. 10. The student body shows their support by doing a whiteout at a basketball game. Northwest students rock! 11. (L-R) Seniors Clay Freed, Clara Beadle, and John Markus do the cha-cha slide at the Blizzard Bash. 12. Senior Taylor Lawrence was unprepared to strike a pose while Senior Hannah Brotherton was ready on the spot. They dressed up as elves in the spirit of Christmas. 13. A large group of Seniors all pose for a picture after they perform for the last time on the Puffenberger stage. Good job guys! 14. Hayley Macko looking for a pass while a guard attempts to block. She said she loved being on the team this year. 15. Senior Jessica Demaree and her date, Northwest graduate Clayton Rood, having a blast at winter formal.

Juniors

Joseph Cochran gets super hyped up about the egg toss during the spring pep rally. It was the winning throw, and tensions were high among him and his friends, who include Nathan Booth, Jacob Hyrne, Nathan Weaver, James Nicholson, Darian Short, and David Dill.

Madison Butcher gives Hannah Messner some bunny ears while working on their ceramics projects. "If we were Disney princesses, I would be Rapunzel and she would be Meg," Hannah laughed when asked to describe their friendship.

Kyle Myers and Beau Workman make some noise at the first pep rally of the school year. It was the same day as the beach themed football game, where they had a "whale of a time"!

Cora Underwood and her date, Darian Short, ask for a photo with David Fitzwater and his date, Kalynn Boak, so they can remember their 2015 homecoming night forever. Cora and Kaylynn are best friends, and so are Darian and David!

Lexie Ropchock hits a striking pose during her floor routine with the Northwest gymnastics team. This has been her third year on this team, but her fourteenth year doing gymnastics overall.

Leah Luhning has a good laugh with her friends while setting up for the girls' basketball senior night.

Tristan Shoaf and Eli Murillo do the wobble during the Junior vs Senior dance off. Even though they lost, they gave their best effort and had a lot of fun dancing their hearts out.

1. Junior Zach Earnsberger and Senior Corey Earnsberger support their team by watching their teammates get hits and score runs for the Northwest Indians. While they waited for their turn to bat, they encouraged the on-deck batter. 2. Staff members Mr. Johnson and Mr. Lower use all of their strength to battle in the tug of war competition. The downstairs staff beat the upstairs staff, but they recalled the match. 3. The JV softball team participates in a group photoshoot. It was their last home game and they wanted to make it one to remember. 4. Frequently neglected by the yearbook staff, Mrs. Baer, Mrs. Finefrock, Mrs. Jovanovic & Mr. Senften take the opportunity to pose for a quick photo. 5. After a win against Smithville, the Junior- Varsity and Varsity softball teams go to The Barn for dinner. The two teams enjoy their traditional night out at The Barn. 6. Sophomore Layni Penrod long jumps 12'10" to help get more points for the Northwest track team. The 12'10" was the highest that she has jumped this season, making it her new record.

7. Junior Corey Carpenter and Senior Samantha Miller sing "Epilogue" by Les Miserables Cast at May Fiesta. This May Fiesta was Samantha's last performance for Northwest. 8. The senior class participates in a dance off against the Juniors during the spring pep rally. The senior class defeated and won the competition against the Juniors. 9. Junior Haley Pullen and Senior Grace Stockert take a breather while waiting for their next event during the track meet. These two girls worked hard to score points and help Northwest Win. 10. Junior Nate Gissinger tries to help the Junior class win the dance off against the Senior class. Nate's outstanding moves to the song "Jump On It" wasn't enough to defeat the Seniors. 11. Juniors Eli Murillo and Paige Burroughs look stunning while showing off their moves at Prom. They enjoyed their night out under the Paris lights.

The season yielded more challenges than what was once predicted. The talent is there and beneath the gloves each player holds a key ingredient to the perfect team. Getting the right recipe is the hard part. Too little and you won't have the right taste. Too much and you'll ruin the dish. Just as the season started to come to an end, the team started to figure out the right measurements. Although the scoreboard doesn't back that statement, their performance on the field argued otherwise. They really started cooking when the tournament games came around. However the small errors added up and ultimately lead to their defeat. For the seniors, this is the end of their high school baseball career. For the others, this is only the beginning. Now that the talent is there, all that is needed is to apply it through teamwork and determination. The team looks forward to next season and showing the world what the Red N' Gray truly represents!

1. Junior, Brian Stevenson, takes his turn striking out Barbarton's players. He had many successes during the game; motivating NW to hang in there and not make it easy for the other team. 2. Senior, Cory Earnsberger, challenges Barbarton and shows them what it means to really wield a baseball bat. 3. Junior, Tyler Devenport and seniors, Cory Earnsberger and John Markus, devise a new plan of action to strike out the Barbarton batters. Their plan worked at first, but Barbarton learned quickly and regained control of the game. 4. Junior, Jacob Hyrne, leads first base looking to steal second from an unaware Barbarton pitcher. 5. Junior, Corey Carpenter, kicks it into high gear as he moves to receive a perfectly lined up shot from one very unlucky batter. 6. Senior, John Markus, hits to first base. He is anxiously waiting for his teammates to send him around the diamond and home again. 7. Junior, Tristen Lindeman, steps up to bat against a pitcher determined to strike him out. He directs all his focus to the pitch and signals that he's not here to mess around. 8. Senior, Jarrad Farley, hurdles five ounces of pain down the diamond. Both him and junior, Zach Earnsberger, instill fear into all of those who dare brave their ball.

Coach Megan Levensgood and Assistant Coach Dan Levensgood - 7 wins, 14 losses

The varsity girls began their season with a rough start, mainly because they were a young team. As they gained experience, they started playing as a team and coming together as one. They started winning more games and the girls got closer and became more like a family. They still struggled throughout with tougher teams on their schedule, but they put up a good fight. With 4 seniors on the team, each one of them became a leader and someone the younger girls looked up to. Everyone bonded and the season was filled with laughter and good times. They went into the tournament confident, thinking they would go far, and wanting to show people they can do it.

The varsity team huddles up and prays before their game against GlenOak. "Dear 6 pound, 8 ounce, newborn infant Jesus" Junior, Ashley Kittinger started off in the praying circle. 4. Sophomore, Courtney Harris laughs with the field umpire at Firestone Stadium during the game against Niles. "You could've gotten a triple if you ran faster" the field umpire told Courtney when she stood on second.

5. Senior Regen Morgan gets ready for the very first pitch of the game against GlenOak. She slapped the ball past the shortstop to get safe to start off the game. 6. Senior Erika Juersivich gets down and ready for a hit to first. She took charge and got the first out of the game as being one of the four seniors. 7. Junior, Ashley Kittinger dives head first into third for a triple against Field. Ashley scored in two girls to put runs on the board. 8. Senior Morgan Bass waits for the pitcher to throw a pitch to her. Morgan crushed a line drive over the second baseman's head against Niles in Firestone Stadium.

Route

Coach James "Bear" Christy, Assistant Coach Madelaine Magazzeni - 8 Wins, 10 Losses

The JV girls started off really well, but went on a losing streak toward the middle of the season and then won a few of their last games. Although the girls were upset when they lost a game, they always showed up to the next one ready to win. They continued to encourage each other and keep smiles on their faces as they went through a rough season. All the girls became closer to one another and couldn't have had a better team to be with out on the field. At every practice or game, someone on the team managed to make a new memory, whether it was something they said or something that happened when they were taking ground balls or practicing their hitting. They wished that the season had not passed as quickly as it did and are now patiently waiting for next year's season to come.

1. At a very cold game, some of the girls huddle around a heater to stay warm. They had to ask each other who was next up in the batting line up so they could switch who got to sit closest to the heater.
2. The team decides to have their own picture day on their last home game. "Fam" was spelled out in softballs to represent the love of the team.
3. Freshmen, Kendal Kovacs and Cassie Dawson make the most of their game by making funny faces at each other. Even though Kendal was in recovery from her knee surgery, Cassie always knew how to cheer her up!
4. Sophomore, Brooke Miletich gives the pitcher the signal for a fastball. She caught the whole game and helped out her team by throwing the runner out on a drop three.
5. Junior, Shellby Jansen gets ready for a hit to first. "I was proud to start at first base and first at bat for it only being my second year playing."
6. Sophomore, Kiley Turckes retrieves the ball as the catcher makes the throw to second. "I did really good during this game, but we left with a tough loss."
7. The team comes together for their last home game and pitches in a comment or two. They had a tough season, but couldn't have had a better one with these girls.
8. Freshman, Sara Boles prepares herself to bat as she faces the pitcher from Wooster. She cracked the ball all the way out to the center outfielder and made it to first base.

The boys track team started out with many upper classmen. It looked as if the team would be doing really well this year with all the experienced players. Unfortunately, the team lost many of those players due to injuries. The underclassmen had to step up and take some of their spots. Even with many of them only having a year or two of experience the team did very well this year.

Promposal 2015

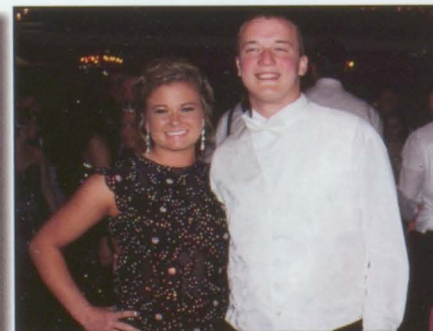

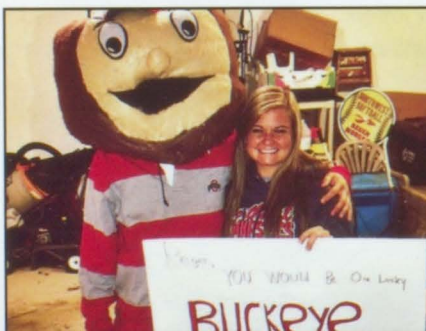

Senior Lauren Stover convinces her boyfriend to come home from college the week before finals for her senior prom. He gladly accepted his hunting themed promposal and danced the night away at his girlfriend's last prom.

Junior Carter Antal surprised sophomore, Emily Jackson with a promposal after the home softball game against GlenOak. When the girls were shaking hands with the other team, Carter stood on the pitchers mound and said "Emily Nicole, will you go to prom with me?"

Junior Brian Stevenson becomes "famous" by asking senior Stacie Houser to prom. With officer Muntean's help, if she didn't say yes, she would be under arrest. They had a good time at prom and really made the most of the night.

Senior Courtney Ridenour shows up at Paul Wellman's, her boyfriend, college campus to surprise him with a bear and specially printed t-shirt asking him to prom. A nice student that let her in to the college helped her make a perfect promposal!

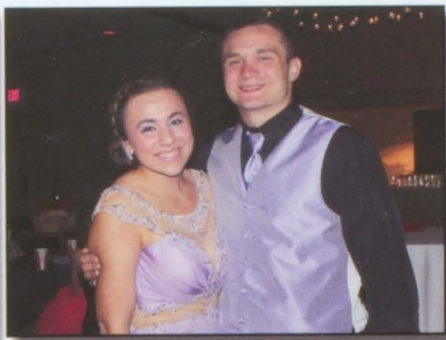

Senior Nick Hearn thought it would be a great idea to ask Senior Regen Morgan to prom dressed in a Brutus costume because she is going to Ohio State for college. They were headed to get some ice cream when Nick jumped out like Brutus and asked her to prom!

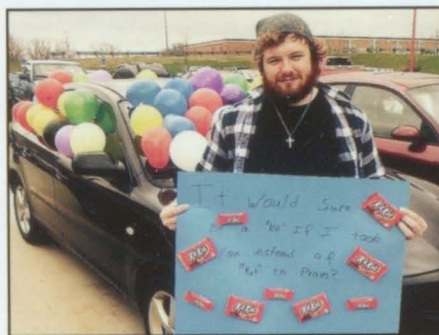

Senior Brian Belles asks Junior Maddy Worden to prom with a different surprise each period throughout the school day. "Will you go to prom with me?" was spelled out with each new item that came. Brian greeted her with flowers and the last word of the question at the end of the day.

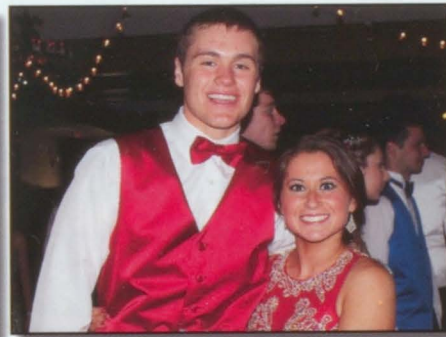

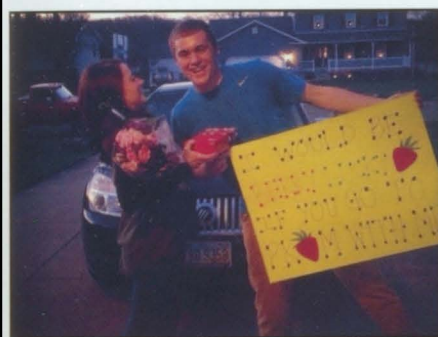

Senior Chance Harvey asked Senior Cevannah McCoury to prom by meeting her at Cherry Street Creamery and ordering ice cream. Along with the ice cream, he got her balloons, flowers and a cookie cake that said "Prom."

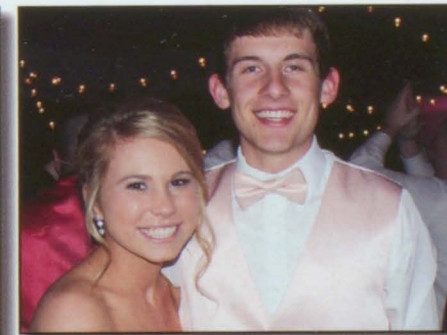

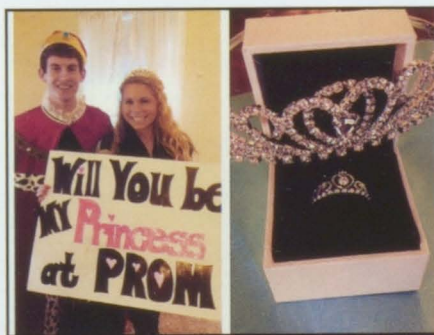

Senior Jordyn Fye was expecting a promposal from her boyfriend Zach, a senior at Jackson high school. Her friend Katie Joyce pointed at her car out the window and said, "Why are there balloons on your car, oh look Zach...you're probably being asked to prom."

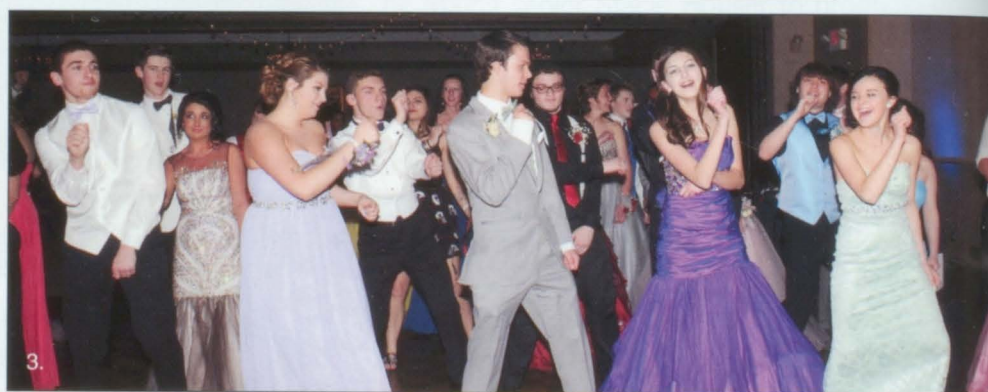

Junior Matthew Fennell starts to take his date senior Hannah Brotherton to dinner when he "forgets" his wallet at his friend's house. At the arrival of his friend's house, he opens the garage door, grabs the chocolate covered strawberries and holds up his sign asking her to prom.

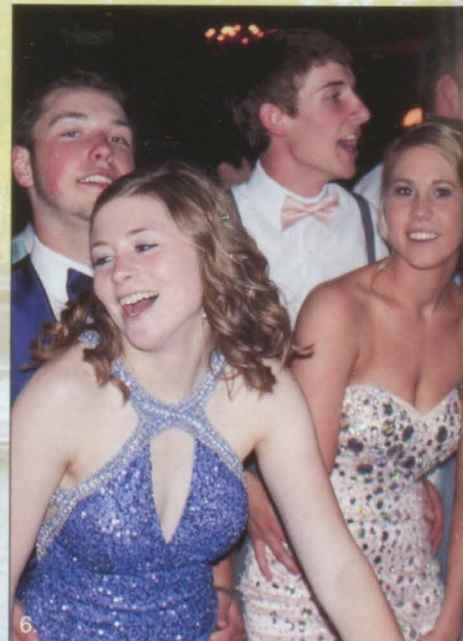

On the way to dinner senior John Markus asks senior Clara Beadle to be his princess at prom by dressing in a king costume and giving her a princess crown ring. Not only was he asking her to prom, but it was also their six month anniversary gift.

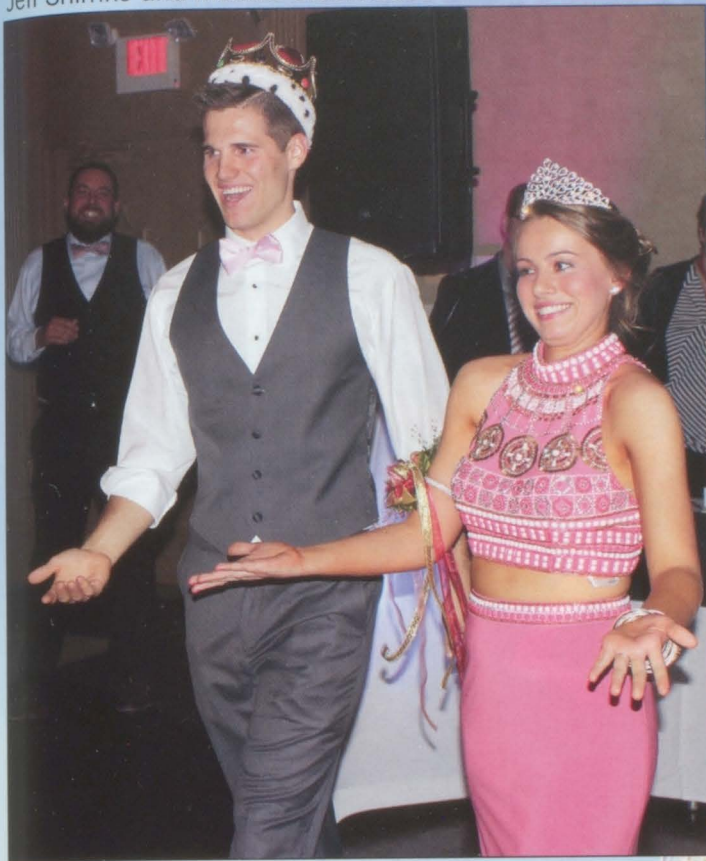

Prom Passport to Paris

1. A large group of Seniors gather to create one last memory together at prom. 2. Seniors Jared Tomschik and Kylee Jovingo indulge in the chocolate fountain and other foods that were featured at the dance. 3. Seniors Phillip Strassini, Melanie Grady, and Kenny Aronson, Junior Kristin Sobie, and Freshman Hannah Huffman, dance and enjoy the night together. 4. Junior Elisa Benitez tears up the dancefloor during the song "Wobble". 5. Senior Matt Oakes "straight shreddin'" on his air guitar during "Stacy's Mom". 6. Seniors Stacy Houser and Clara Beadle have a blast dancing with their dates Senior John Markus and Junior Brian Stevenson.

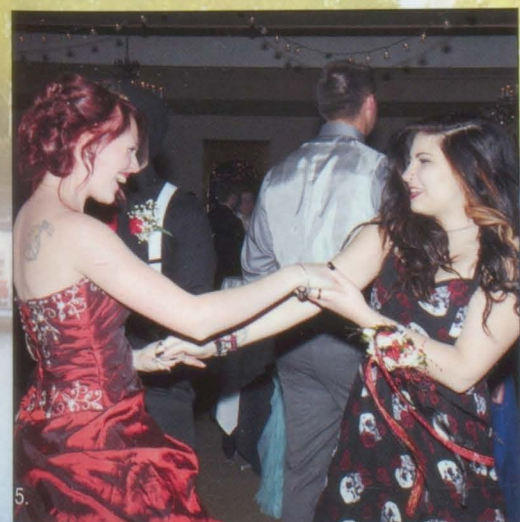

Prom King and Queen
Jeff Shimko and Maddie Stackhouse

Students flooded into the Paris-themed prom with small passports as tickets. With beautiful decorations made by the art club, everyone was so excited to attend prom this year. A elegant Paris theme was picked for this year's prom and an incredible "Cafe Le Paris" scene was set up as the backdrop for pictures made by Northwest's own art club. Senior, Molly Ogg said, "the lights really added a touch of paris", they gave off an amazing glow that really pulled everything together. Lights were strung around the entire place and created a great atmosphere for students to enjoy their night with their dates and friends. With tables upon tables of delectable, delicious desserts, prom was much "sweeter" than everyone had expected and everyone loved snacking on the desserts provided. Small Eiffel towers adorned the area along with hand-painted suitcases and dozens of gorgeous flowers everywhere you looked. A fun photobooth was set up for everyone to enjoy and take silly pictures with their friends while using the photobooth props that were provided. Students really enjoyed the photobooth and had so much fun with all of their friends. In all, prom was a success with the prom King, Jeff Shimko and prom Queen, Maddie Stackhouse being crowned to top off the beautiful night.

1. Juniors Justin Hinkle, Matt Fennell, and Briar Barabasz discuss what props they are going to use in their photobooth pictures. 2. Junior Baylie Horvath and Freshman Hannah Huffman pose with Baylie's powder blue bicycle as they arrived at their prom. 3. Junior Kristin Sobie and Seniors Phillip Strassini and Adam Brunner share a dance together in their own little group. 4. Senior Jarrad Farley and his date, Shari, share a wonderful night at prom together as they pose creatively. 5. Seniors and best friends; Brooke Sombati and Tiffany Clark share a lively dance together and have an amazing time at prom! 6. Seniors Olivia Rooks, Brooklyn Kapper, and Hannah Brotherton grab their photobooth props and create a picture-perfect memory that they will never forget. 7. As she serenades her boyfriend, Senior Brittney Fox and her date Brandon have a great night together.

May Fiesta was a success yet again! The theme this year was "Broadway," and included songs from various musicals including Grease, Les Miserables, Guys and Dolls, and more. This was also the first year it was under the direction of choral instructor Douglas Beery. "This was my last performance on this stage, and it was a real pleasure serving with my fellow vocalists," stated Justin Trompower. "Also, I hope Kylie Collmar will keep the tradition alive!"

7. Seniors, Phillip Strassini and Michael Finney perform with the varsity choir with the song, "You'll Never Walk Alone." 8. Sophomore, Cierra Gunter, poses with Junior, Rachel Knapp, in hopes of remembering the night forever. 9. Freshmen, Hannah Knight, Ariana Negulis, Ethan Lower, and Rachel Caniglia, join together as a band to play, "Faithfully." 10. Freshman, Hannah Huffman, and Senior, Phillip Strassini, rocking that 1950's look before their Grease performance. 11. The varsity choir combines their dancing and singing talents during the song, "We Go Together." 12. Rachel Caniglia takes a turn in the spotlight during the Kokopelli performance. 13. Seniors, Samantha Miller and Nick Sanchez, look snazzy while getting jazzy during their rendition of Chicago's "All That Jazz." 14. Senior, Austin Boser, gives an excellent performance as the character "Nicely Nicely" during the song, "Sit Down You're Rocking The Boat." 15. Senior, Mikhayla Hazlett, with the help of her older brother Jacob, sang a lovely cover of "Home," originally by Phillip Phillips.

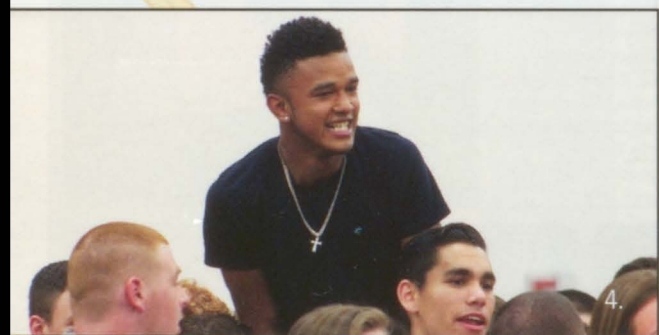

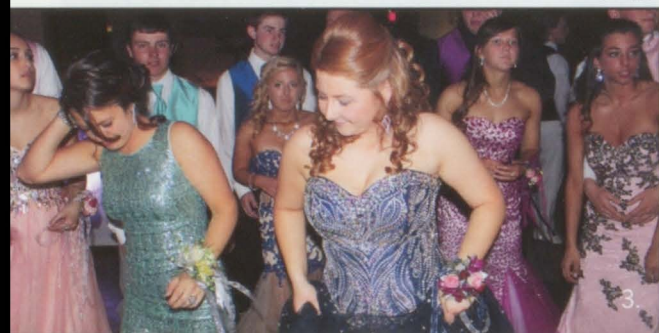

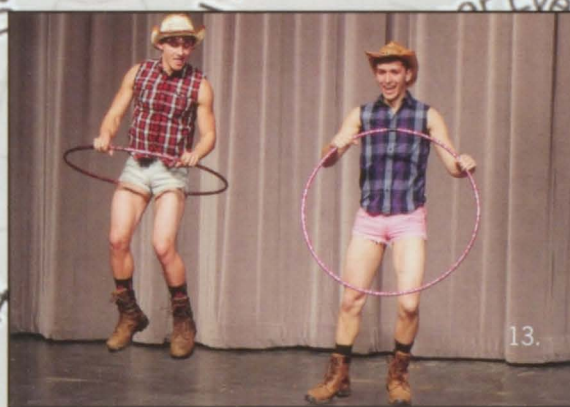

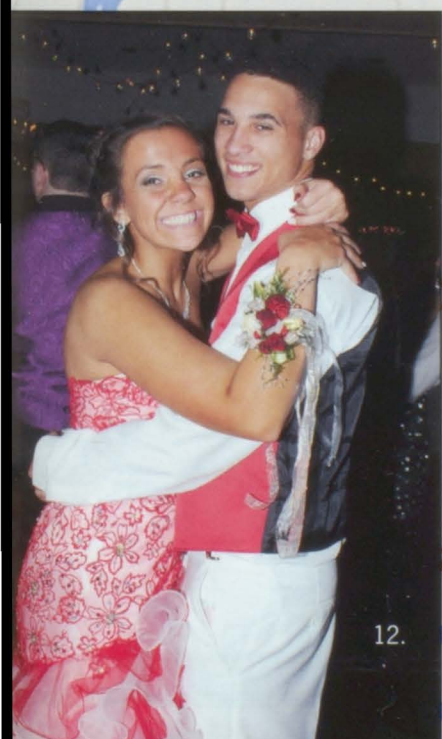

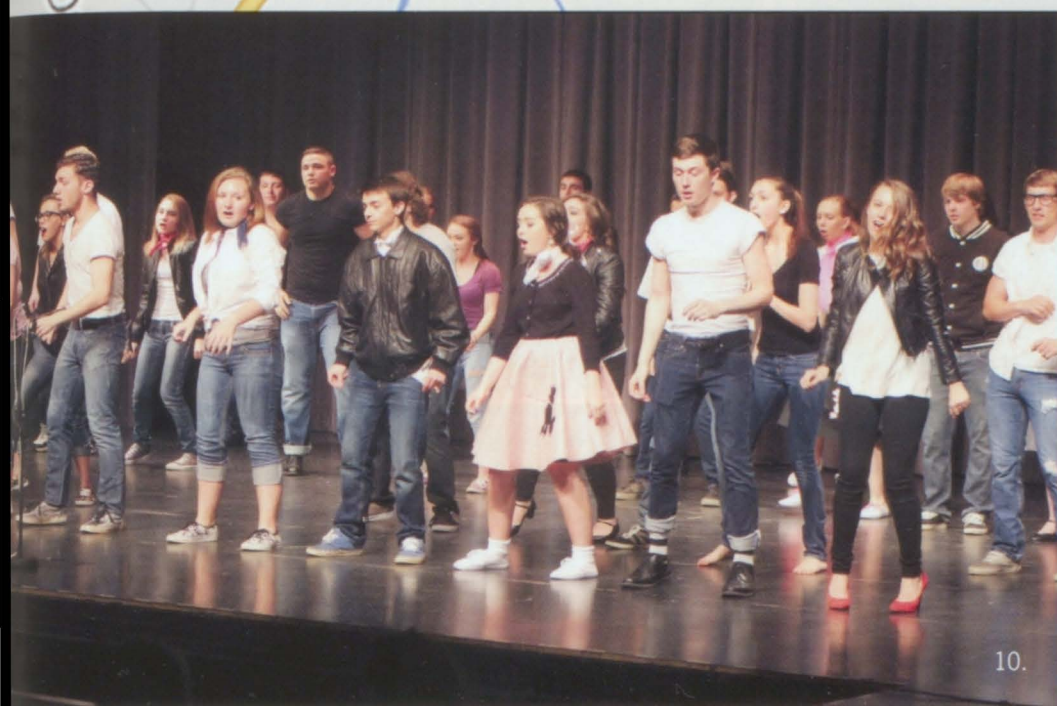

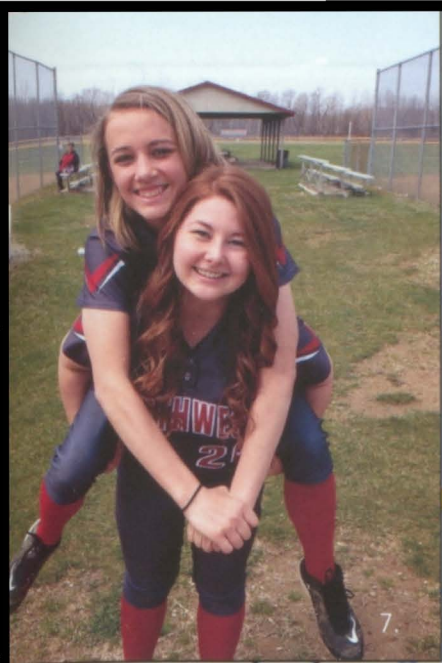

Molly Ogg

1. Junior, Nate Gissinger, wasn't prepared for this picture as he makes his way down to the basketball court at the Spring pep rally to participate in the Junior vs. Senior dance off! 2. On Thursday, May 21st for SWORD the group at the Veterans Memorial take a break from all the hard work for a photo! 3. Senior Morgan Bass and a group of girls bust out some moves while doing the Cha Cha slide at prom! 4. The yearbook staff was quick enough to get a clear shot of Sophomore, Nasir Martin, before he was forced to get off of his classmates' shoulders during the pep rally in April. 5. Senior Cory Earnesberger passes the ball to one of his fellow teammates at a home baseball game. 6. A few players from the Junior team at the Hoops for Hunger charity event call up fan, Joe Cochran, and put on their game faces. 7. Sophomore Morgan Rearick, and Senior Morgan Bass assume piggy back position and put big smiles on their faces for their own pictures on softball picture day! 8. Junior Lexi Ropchock boogies it down at the spring pep rally during the dance off! 9. Freshman Delanie Began gets an action shot taken while singing Rolling in the Deep with fellow Freshman Gabby Zink during May Fiesta. 10. Varsity choir performs their rendition of "We Go Together" from the hit musical Grease! 11. Senior Abbie Woodward has a fabulous time under the lights of Paris, as you can obviously tell from this picture of her dancing the night away. 12. Although he attends R.G. Drage, Lawrence Ruthrauf enjoyed spending some time with his Northwest friends. 13. Seniors Chuck Kirkpatrick and Michael Zervos show off their Hula Hoop/Jump Rope skills at Man of the Year. Later on, both made it to the top ten, but neither left with the crown. 14. Seniors Samantha Miller, Adam Brunner, and Cassidy Spencer perform with the Kokopelli Scholars Acapella group at the Spring pep rally. 15. Freshman Hannah Knight takes her turn to sing a solo during May Fiesta while performing Faithfully by Journey with a group of friends.

Arrrr... staff dressed up as Pirates of the Caribbean for Disney Spirit Day.

Mr. Lower shows his staff spirit at the Student-Staff basketball game during the winter pep rally.

Mrs. Haynam & Mr. Woods lookin' groovy on 70's day.

May the Force be with these teachers and their tutu costumes!
