THE FULTONIAN

We, the Senior Class of 1944, dedicate this Ful-tonian in sincere appreciation to all those who have gone from our class to enter the Armed Service and to those who yet may be called to wear the uniform of their country.

Moana Brummit

As a tribute to a member of the Junior Class who passed away October 4, 1943 in her sixteenth year, this page is reserved in memory of Moana Brummit. She was a true, sweet, loyal and sincere friend to all who knew her. Her congenial manner, cooperative spirit and warm smile will long be remembered by her fellow students.

"Goodbye Now"

As our four years of high school studies and pleasures draw to a close, we, the seniors of 1944, look back with pride and appreciation upon the many classmates and teachers with whom we have been associated; and with sorrow and regret upon the classmates and patrons we have lost. Graduating under the conditions and handicaps which the war has wrought, has made little difference in the good times and activities which we have enjoyed. As we enter the ocean of worldly affairs, we hope that those students yet to graduate from Canal Fulton High School will benefit as greatly from school life, as we have.

5 ft. 8½ in.—Playing a forward in this, his fourth year of basketball, “Woody” was one of our leading scorers. His shooting ability, alert mind, and knowledge of basketball made him a very capable captain.

6 ft. — This was “Pete’s” fourth year of basketball, in which he played center. Besides being our leading scorer, fine backboard work and consistent shooting made him an important cog in the team’s set-up. He was chosen one of the centers on the Stark Co. Tournament Team.

5 ft. 10 in.—Another four-year man, who played guard. Dick showed outstanding floorwork and reliability as a foul-shooter, besides hitting the hoop regularly.

Compliments of Joe Adams

6 ft. — Also completing his fourth year of basketball, Jack's excellent long-shot ability proved an asset to the team.

5 ft. 9 in.—This was Ralph's first year of basketball during which he showed great ability in working the ball into the basket. His back-guard position gave assurance to the rest of the team.

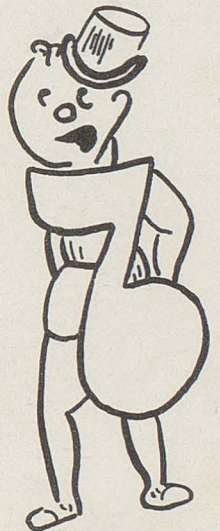

5 ft. 11 in.—Jim's first year of basketball showed great sportsmanship and team spirit.
